BILL NO. 041086

Introduced December 16, 2004

Councilmembers Clarke and O'Neill

Referred to the Committee on Technology and Information Services

AN ORDINANCE

Amending Title 17 of The Philadelphia Code entitled "Contracts and Procurement," by adding a Section 17-204 entitled "Disposition of Surplus Computer Equipment to Certain Non-Profit Organizations," requiring that a percentage of the City's surplus computer equipment be donated to certain non-profit organizations who provide services to the community, under certain terms and conditions.

THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF PHILADELPHIA HEREBY ORDAINS:

§17-204. Disposition of Surplus Computer Equipment to Non-Profit Organizations.

a) The Council of the City of Philadelphia hereby finds that:

WHEREAS, The Procurement Department of City of Philadelphia regularly disposes of city agency surplus computer inventory resulting from technology upgrades and/or the phasing out of outdated computer equipment; and

WHEREAS, Currently the City has a policy of having city agencies either donate certain surplus computer equipment to the School District and/or sell certain surplus computer equipment for revenue purposes; and

WHEREAS, Throughout the City of Philadelphia there are a number of non-profit organizations that provide valuable services to the citizens of Philadelphia, whose services could be enhanced by the use of certain surplus computer equipment; and

WHEREAS, It would be in the best interest of the citizens of Philadelphia and the City of Philadelphia that certain surplus computer equipment to be used by certain non-profit organizations that provide services to the community under certain terms and conditions.

City of Philadelphia

b) The City of Philadelphia through its Procurement Department shall donate fifty (50%) percent of all surplus computer equipment to certain non-profit organizations that provide services to the citizens of the City of Philadelphia, under certain terms and conditions.
