OFFICE OF THE YOUTH OMBUDSPERSON

* * *

§ 4-3000. Mission.

The mission of the Office of the Youth Ombudsperson is to promote the health, welfare, education, safety, well-being, and re-entry of youth placed in juvenile justice, child welfare, or behavioral health residential care facilities that are operated by, contract with, or operate under the regulatory authority of the City, its agencies, or any City-related agency.

§ 4-3001. Powers and Duties.

The Office of the Youth Ombudsperson shall have the power and its duty shall be to perform the following functions:

(a) Receive complaints for the purpose of improving the quality of care provided to youth in residential care facilities and refer or conduct investigations into such complaints in accordance with applicable federal, state, and City laws and regulations;

(b) Review and evaluate the competence of the City's juvenile justice, child welfare, or behavioral health agencies, including the agencies performing the functions set forth in Charter § 5-700, and their providers in serving the needs of youth in residential care facilities;

(c) Review, audit, assess, and provide recommendations regarding the conduct, policies and practices of entities providing services to youth in residential care facilities, including, but not limited to, in connection with annual facility evaluations, provider contract negotiations, and related contract actions;

(d) Monitor and review investigations and evaluations performed by, and investigatory protocols, reporting systems, emergency response procedures, and other policies and procedures used by, City and City-related agencies in connection with assessing the quality of care provided to youth in residential care facilities;

(e) Evaluate the quality of care, treatment, and education provided to youth in residential placements, as needed, including, but not limited to: visiting and/or inspecting any aspect of the residential facilities; formally or informally interviewing facility staff or City personnel; conducting confidential interviews with youth upon notice to youth's counsel providing them an opportunity to be present; reviewing records while maintaining confidentiality; and initiating service concerns;

(e)(f) Identify issues and trends regarding the quality of care provided to youth in residential placements, demographics, and demographic disparities; conducting surveys and monitoring complaint, incident, and grievance data collected by City and City-related agencies in connection with assessing the quality of care provided to youth in residential care facilities; and gathering other data as necessary to facilitate such identification;

(f)(g) Provide advice and recommendations to the Mayor and relevant City and City-related agencies regarding how best to improve services and outcomes for individuals placed in youth residential care facilities;

(g)(h) Access such documents, facilities, personnel and information as necessary to carry out its authorized functions in accordance with, and to the full extent authorized by, applicable federal, state, and City laws and regulations, including education and court records with leave of court, as appropriate if required by law;

(h)(i) Develop, publish and deliver information, materials and guidance to educate and engage youth, families, providers, courts and others about residential placement processes, available avenues for assistance, youth rights and protections, and other matters relevant to residential placements and the youth experience;

(i)(j) Prepare an annual report on its activities, goals, and accomplishments during the previous fiscal year for the Mayor, City Council, and the public and file present this report with the Chief Clerk of the Council publicly before March 31 of each year;

(k) Carry out such additional powers and duties as Council may, by ordinance, confer on the Office of the Youth Ombudsperson, consistent with the scheme of this Charter.
