(Resolution No. 150754)

RESOLUTION

Honoring and congratulating the Honorable Judge Marjorie Rendell for her contributions to the City of Philadelphia as a Judge, a First Lady, and an advocate for civics education.

WHEREAS, The Honorable Judge Marjorie Rendell has been an active figure in the City of Philadelphia since she began a career at Duane Morris & Heckscher in 1974 that lasted for 20 years; and

WHEREAS, The Honorable Judge Rendell founded and chaired the Avenue of the Arts, Inc. in 1993 to help the City of Philadelphia revitalize Broad Street; and

WHEREAS, The Honorable Judge Rendell has taken an active role in encouraging civic education among school students since she established the Penn Coalition of Representative Democracy, or PennCORD, in 2004, while still First Lady of Pennsylvania; and

WHEREAS, Since the Honorable Judge Rendell's establishment of PennCORD in 2004 and the subsequent creation of the Rendell Center for Civics and Civic Engagement in 2014, Judge Rendell has been working to reinvigorate civic education and civic engagement among the youth of Pennsylvania; and

WHEREAS, The Honorable Judge Rendell's Center for Civics and Civic Engagement fosters active civic learning among the youth of Pennsylvania through the incorporation of civic knowledge, public action and democratic deliberation; and

WHEREAS, The Rendell Center is now even more effective in partnership with the Annenberg Public Policy Center, which has partnered with middle and high school students, in encouraging civic engagement in students K-12 in the Philadelphia School District; and
