Philadelphia

(Resolution No. 240648)

RESOLUTION

Honoring and recognizing The Black Clergy of Philadelphia and Vicinity for being a pillar of strength and a symbol of hope for Philadelphia through its social justice activism.

WHEREAS, The Black Clergy of Philadelphia and Vicinity was founded 43 years ago after a Philadelphia teacher's strike. Led by Rev. James S. Allen, clergy members marched on Broad and Vine in protest, and 25, mostly Black, ministers were arrested. The organization represents a significant force in addressing the diverse challenges faced by the African American community; and

WHEREAS, The Black Clergy of Philadelphia and Vicinity stands firmly on the mandate in Psalms 82:3-4, "Defend the poor and fatherless: do justice to the afflicted and needy. Deliver the poor and needy: rid them out of the hand of the wicked."; and

WHEREAS, The Black Clergy of Philadelphia and Vicinity was established to serve as a collective voice and advocate for African Americans, and the organization has continuously evolved to meet the changing needs of the community it serves; and

WHEREAS, The Black Clergy of Philadelphia and Vicinity has worked to combat issues affecting the community such as COVID-19, HIV/AIDS, homelessness, gentrification, and gun violence; and

WHEREAS, To combat gun violence within the City, The Black Clergy of Philadelphia and Vicinity has used the power of prayer and collaboration with City officials to bring about a Safer Summer in Philly; and

WHEREAS, The Black Clergy of Philadelphia and Vicinity has exhibited a deep commitment to justice and equality by addressing issues such as education reform, racial profiling, and flaws within the criminal justice system; now, therefore, be it
