(Bill No. 000184)

AN ORDINANCE

Amending Section 9-103 of The Philadelphia Code, entitled “Enforcement and Appeals,” by providing that appeals to the Board of License and Inspection Review shall not stay proceedings in furtherance of the action appealed from, under certain terms and conditions.

THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF PHILADELPHIA HEREBY ORDAINS:

SECTION 1. Section 9-103 of The Philadelphia Code is amended to read as follows:

§9-103. Enforcement and Appeals.

* * *

(3) [Except as otherwise provided, compliance] Compliance with an order shall [not] be required while an appeal is pending before the Board of License and Inspection Review or before a Court, except that the Board of License and Inspection Review, upon application of the appellant, shall have the power to issue a stay upon a showing of good cause and likelihood of success on the merits of the appeal.

[(4) When an order requiring immediate action is issued, the person to whom it is directed shall comply immediately even though an appeal is pending before the Board of License and Inspection Review or any Court. The Board shall give priority to appeals from order requiring immediate action.]
