(a) construction work in or directly related to the hotel that creates excessive noise that is likely to substantially disturb a guest, other than construction that is intended to correct an emergency condition or other condition requiring immediate attention;

(b) conditions of which the hotel operator is aware, indicating the presence in the hotel of any infestation by bed bugs, lice or other insects, rodents or other vermin capable of spreading disease or being carried, including on one's person, if the infestation has not been fully treated by a licensed exterminator within 24 hours of identifying it;

into an agreement or booking for the use or occupancy of one or more rooms in a hotel in furtherance of the business of reselling the rooms to guests.

§ 9-6702. Obligation to Notify Guests of Service Disruption:

(1) Within 24 hours of the occurrence of a service disruption, a hotel operator shall provide, in all modifiable mediums in which the hotel advertises, solicits customers, or through which customers can book or reserve rooms or services, notification of the service disruption to each third-party vendor and each guest who is seeking, or has entered into, a reservation, booking, or agreement with the hotel operator or a third-party vendor for the use or occupancy of a room or hotel service. The notification shall also be provided immediately before accepting or entering into any new reservation, booking, or agreement for the use or occupancy of a room or hotel service. The notification shall also be provided to any current guest. If the circumstances of the service disruption make timely notification impracticable, the notification shall be made as soon as practicable.

(2) The notification shall describe: the nature of the service disruption; the extent of the service disruption's effect on reservations, bookings, or agreements to use or occupy the room or hotel services; and the right of a guest to cancel or terminate the reservation, booking, or agreement for the use or occupancy of the room or hotel services, with a refund and without the imposition of any fee, penalty, or other charge, as provided in subsections c. and d. of this section. If the notification is included in a communication containing other information, the notification shall be in a significantly larger font and different color than the remainder of the communication.

(3) A hotel operator shall not impose any fee, penalty, or other charge, nor retain any deposit or payment, in the event a guest, prior to checking in, cancels a reservation, booking, or agreement with the hotel operator for the use or occupancy of a room or hotel service, if the guest's stay or room is, or could be, substantially affected by a service disruption during the guest's stay or use of a hotel service.

(4) If a service disruption arises only after any guest of the room has checked in or hotel service has begun, the hotel operator shall prominently and clearly notify the guest of the service disruption within 24 hours of the disruption, as provided in subsection (a) of this section. The notification shall specify the rights set forth in this subsection, pursuant to subsection (b) of this section. The guests of the room or hotel service may terminate any reservation, booking, or agreement for the rental of the room or use of a hotel service, and the hotel operator shall not impose any fee, penalty, or other charge for the termination, nor retain any deposit or payment related to any unused portion of the period of the reservation, booking, or agreement following the onset of the service disruption.

(5) A hotel operator that violates or causes another person to violate a provision of this section or any rule promulgated pursuant to the section, shall be subject to a civil penalty collectible by such City agency as may be designated by the Mayor, as follows:

(c) a civil penalty of $2,000 for the third violation issued for the same offense within a period of two years of the date of the first violation.

The continuation of a violation shall constitute a separate offense for each successive day.

(6) In addition to any other penalties or remedies for violations of this section, any guest or customer may also bring a private cause of action in any court of competent jurisdiction to recover, in addition to the remedies provided for in this act, compensatory, equitable and consequential damages, and reasonable attorney's fees and costs.
