(Resolution No. 150299)

RESOLUTION

Proclaiming April, 2015 as National Child Abuse and Neglect Prevention Month.

WHEREAS, Child abuse and neglect is a serious problem affecting every segment of our community and finding solutions requires input and action from everyone in our community; and

WHEREAS, In the past year alone, the Philadelphia Department of Human Services received over 19,000 calls to its abuse and neglect hotline; and

WHEREAS, Our children are our most valuable resources and will shape the future of the City of Philadelphia; and

WHEREAS, Child abuse can have long-term psychological, emotional, and physical effects that can have lifelong consequences for victims of abuse; and

WHEREAS, Protective factors are conditions that reduce or eliminate risk and promote the social, emotional and developmental well-being of children; and

WHEREAS, Effective child abuse prevention activities succeed because of the meaningful connections and partnerships created between child welfare, education, health, community and faith-based organizations, businesses and law enforcement agencies; and

WHEREAS, Communities must make every effort to promote programs and activities that benefit children and their families; and

WHEREAS, We acknowledge that we must work together as a community to increase awareness about child abuse and contribute to promote the social and emotional well-being of children and families in a safe, stable, nurturing environment; and
