SECTION 1. A new Chapter 9-2400 of The Philadelphia Code entitled “Prohibition Against Predatory Lending”, is hereby enacted, to read as follows:

CHAPTER 9-2400. PROHIBITION AGAINST PREDATORY LENDING PRACTICES.

§ 9-2401. Legislative Findings.

- (1) The City Council of the City of Philadelphia finds:
 - (a) that citizens from many lower and moderate income neighborhoods in Philadelphia have been unable to access legitimate financing for home purchases and renovations, allowing predatory lenders to thrive; and
 - (b) that these predatory lenders are charging exorbitant fees and interest rates and are persuading citizens to incur mortgage debt in excess of their needs or ability to pay, often through fraudulent means; and
 - (c) these predatory lending practices appear to be targeting elderly and vulnerable borrowers; and
 - (d) that to protect the citizens of Philadelphia and its neighborhoods from lending practices which strip hard earned equity from city residents and contribute to the problem of vacant and abandoned houses by making loans that families cannot afford to repay.
- (2) It is the intent and purpose of this Chapter:
 - (a) to collect and make available to the public information necessary for city residents to protect themselves against predatory lending practices; and
 - (b) to prevent the lenders engaged in predatory lending and those persons providing referrals and services to those lenders from enjoying the privilege of doing business with our City; and
 - (c) to prevent predatory lenders and those persons providing referrals and services to those lenders from taking advantage of city programs designed to encourage home ownership and home repair.

§ 9-2403. Predatory Lending Practices Prohibited.

(1) Prohibited Conduct.

Subjects to the limitations of subsection (f):

(a) Issuing Predatory Loans

No person shall make, issue, or arrange a predatory loan, or assist others in doing so. A person who, when acting in good faith, fails to comply with this subsection will not be deemed to have violated this subsection if the person establishes that either:

(1) Within 30 days of the loan closing and prior to the institution of any action under this Chapter, the borrower is notified of the compliance failure, appropriate restitution is made, and whatever adjustments are necessary are made to the loan to either, at the choice of the borrower, (i) make the predatory loan satisfy the requirements of this Chapter or (ii) change the terms of the loan in a manner beneficial to the borrower so that the loan will no longer be considered a predatory loan subject to the provisions of this Chapter; or

(2) The compliance failure was not intentional and resulted from a bona fide error notwithstanding the maintenance of procedures reasonably adapted to avoid such errors, and within 60 days after the discovery of the compliance failure and prior to the institution of any action under this Chapter or the receipt of written notice of compliance failure, the borrower is notified of the compliance failure, appropriate restitution is made, and whatever adjustments are necessary are made to the loan to either, at the choice of the borrower, (i) make the predatory loan satisfy the requirements of this Chapter, or (ii) change the terms of the loan in a manner beneficial to the borrower so that the loan will no longer be considered a predatory loan subject to the provisions of this Chapter. Examples of a bona fide error include clerical, calculation, computer malfunction and programming, and printing errors. An error of legal judgment with respect to a person's obligations under this Chapter is not a bona fide error.

(b) Lending Without Home Loan Counseling.

No person shall make, issue or arrange any threshold or high cost loan, or assist others in doing so, without first receiving notice from a counselor employed by a housing counseling agency approved by the Office of Housing and Community Development that the borrower has received counseling on the advisability of the loan transaction and the appropriateness of the loan for the borrower based upon the information provided by borrower and lender to the counselor at the time counseling is provided to the borrower.

(c) Lending Without Due Regard to Repayment

No lender shall make, issue or originate any threshold or high cost loan if the lender does not reasonably believe at the time the loan is consummated that the borrower or borrowers (when considered collectively in the case of multiple borrowers) will be able to make the scheduled payments to repay the obligation based upon a consideration of their current and expected income, current obligations, employment status, and other financial resources (other than the borrower's equity in the dwelling which secures repayment of the loan). A borrower shall be presumed to be able to make the scheduled payments to repay the obligation if, at the time the loan is consummated, or at the time of the first rate adjustment in the case of a lower introductory interest rate (i) the borrower's scheduled monthly payments on the loan (including principal, interest, taxes, insurance and assessments), combined with the scheduled payments for all other debt, do not exceed 50% of the borrower's documented and verified monthly gross income, and (ii) provided that the borrower has sufficient "residual income" as defined in the guidelines established in 38 C.F.R. §36.4337(e) and VA form 26-6393 to pay essential monthly expenses after paying the scheduled payments and any additional debt. This subsection applies only to borrowers whose income, as reported on the loan application which the lender relied upon in making the credit decision, is no greater than 120% of the median family income for the Philadelphia Metropolitan Statistical Area (MSA) (as defined by the Director of the U.S. Office of Management and Budget). For purposes of this section, the median family income shall be derived from the most recent estimates made available by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, at the time the application is received. For purposes of determining median income, only the income of the borrower or borrowers shall be considered.

(e) Incorporating Governmental Financial Assistance Funds

All persons shall be barred from promoting, utilizing, packaging, or in any other way incorporating funds from any of the programs administered by the City or a City Agency which are subject to regulation under Chapter 21-1100 of the Philadelphia Code in combination with any high cost or predatory loan. Any contract, lease, grant condition or other agreement entered into by the City with any City-related Agency shall contain a provision requiring that the City-related Agency, in the administration of governmental housing assistance funds abide by the provisions of this subsection as though its administration of such funds was directly subject to the provisions of this subsection.

(f) Provisions Not Applicable to Activities of Certain Financial Institutions

(.1) Subsection (a) is not applicable in the following circumstances:

(i) With respect to a licensed duly lender as may be required under State law, solely because of the presence of a loan provision described in §9-2402(11)(c), (d) or (j), provided that such provision(s) are made in conformity with the requirements of federal law pursuant to the Alternative Mortgage Transaction Parity Act, 12 U.S.C. §3803 and provided that any such loan is not otherwise predatory as defined in §9-2402(11), or

(ii) In the case of a loan made pursuant to the Pa. Consumer Discount Act, 7 P.S. §6201 et. seq., solely because the loan contains any provision authorized by such act, provided that any such loan is not otherwise predatory as defined in §9-2402(11).

(2) Notice to Customers of Home Improvement Contractors

Each home improvement contractor must furnish the following notice, as published from time to time by the Office of Housing and Community Development along with each home improvement contract or bid for home improvement contract for any work to be performed on a residence located within the City of Philadelphia:

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO CUSTOMERS OF HOME IMPROVEMENT CONTRACTORS

If you need a loan to pay for home improvements:

BE CAREFUL. A lender will probably want to take a mortgage on your house. You should not borrow more than you can afford or more than you need. The loan you are being offered may be a threshold or high cost loan. You may be eligible for a different loan which charges significantly less interest or fees. Be very cautious about consolidating your debt with a home mortgage. Beware that if you default on this loan you could lose your house!

It is now the law in Philadelphia that before you sign any threshold or high cost home loan you must receive housing counseling assistance.

For the name, address and phone number of a housing counseling or legal services agency in your neighborhood, turn this notice over to see the list of agencies printed on the reverse side.
