(Resolution No. 260246)

RESOLUTION

Honoring the schools and principals of the fourth Council District for their ongoing commitment to coordination and staying informed through Monday Morning Roll Call meetings.

WHEREAS, The office of Councilmember Curtis Jones Jr. convenes weekly Monday Morning Roll Call meetings at 7:00 a.m. as a forum for communication, and collaboration with school leaders throughout the fourth Council District; and

WHEREAS, These meetings provide an opportunity for principals and school representatives to share real-time updates, discuss challenges, highlight successes, and identify areas where support and coordination with City government may be beneficial; and

WHEREAS, The consistent participation of school leadership reflects a strong commitment to transparency, accountability, and the academic and social well-being of students across the district; and

WHEREAS, Through these weekly gatherings, the Office of Councilmember Jones can maintain a deeper understanding of the conditions, needs, and achievements within local schools, ensuring that the voices of educators are heard and considered in policymaking and constituent services; and

WHEREAS, The collaboration fostered during these meetings strengthens relationships between schools, local government, and the broader community, contributing to safer, more supportive, and more effective learning environments; and

WHEREAS, The following schools and their principals and representatives have demonstrated dedication by participating in the Monday Morning Roll Call meetings, including Overbrook High School, led by Principal Julian L.
