(Resolution No. 050031)

RESOLUTION

Honoring the African American Children's Book Project on the occasion of the Annual African American Children's Book Fair.

WHEREAS, For over a decade the African American Children's Book Fair has enhanced multi-culturalism in our City utilizing the joy of reading as a tool; and

WHEREAS, The importance of book fairs can not be understated as for many of our youth use reading to better know the world around them and use books to help them develop into well educated adults; and

WHEREAS, One of the most important reasons to encourage reading in our children is that studies show that the more our youth read the more likely they are to make positive lifestyle decisions as they grow older; and

WHEREAS, Strictly judging by attendance the fair is a tremendous success as well over 4,000 people attended last year's event; and

WHEREAS, Rich or poor, no one leaves empty handed as posters bookmarks and raffle books are distributed free of charge to attendees; and

WHEREAS, The books themselves are priced at a level where they are more affordable than in many of the bookstores in the region; and

WHEREAS, Many of the authors and illustrators will be in attendance as well as local celebrities to further enhance the excitement and vibrancy that the book fair exudes; and

WHEREAS, One of the esteemed illustrators in attendance will be Philadelphia native, Elbrite Brown the winner of the Coretta Scott King/ John Steptoe New Talent Illustrator Award; and

WHEREAS, The 13th Annual African American Book Fair will be held free of charge on Saturday, February 5th from 1:00 P.M. to 3:00 P.M. at the gymnasium of the Community College of Philadelphia located at 17th & Spring Garden Streets; now therefore
