(Resolution No. 160317)

RESOLUTION

Recognizing and Honoring Herman Frazier for His Gold Medal Career in Track and Field and Athletic Administration.

WHEREAS, Herman Frazier began his athletic career under the training and coaching of the legendary Alex Woodley in the Philadelphia Pioneer Club, a track and field club in Philadelphia. He was a multi-sport athlete at Germantown High School; and

WHEREAS, Frazier continued his athletic career as a runner at Denison University and Arizona State University. At Arizona State, Frazier was an 8-time All-American sprinter. He captained the 1977 Arizona State national championship track team and graduated in 1977 with a degree in political science. Arizona State's Political Science Department has awarded the Herman R. Frazier Scholarship to an undergraduate student each year since 2002; and

WHEREAS, Frazier followed up his successful collegiate career with an illustrious career in international competition. He competed for the United States National Track and Field Team and he won a gold medal as a member of the 4x400-meter relay team and a bronze medal in the 400-meter dash in the 1976 Montreal Olympics. He also earned gold medals in the 1975 and 1979 Pan-American Games. Frazier was also a member of the United States Olympic Team that boycotted the Moscow Games in 1980; and

WHEREAS, Frazier returned to Arizona State University after his track and field years as a full-time athletic administrator. He then served as the Athletics Director at the University of Alabama at Birmingham and at the University of Hawaii. In 2009, he returned to Philadelphia as the Senior Associate Athletics Director at Temple University. He is now the Deputy Athletics Director and Chief of Staff at Syracuse University, where he oversees the daily operations of all facets of Syracuse Athletics. He also chairs the Bowerman Advisory Board which awards The Bowerman Award—collegiate track and field's highest individual honor; and
