RESOLUTION

Recognizing April as Arab American Heritage Month and celebrating the heritage and culture of Arab Americans in Philadelphia.

WHEREAS, From April 1, 2025, through April 30, 2025, the United States celebrates Arab American Heritage Month; and

WHEREAS, For over a century, Arab Americans have made valuable contributions to every aspect of American society, in medicine, law, business, technology, civic engagement, government and culture; and

WHEREAS, Philadelphia was home to the first Arabic-language newspaper ever published in the U.S. in 1898, called Al-Hoda. The fact that Philadelphia is where the first Arabic-language newspaper was founded is emblematic of the rich history of the City's Arab community; and

WHEREAS, Saint Maron Lebanese Church in South Philadelphia was founded by Lebanese immigrants in 1892 establishing an enclave in the neighborhood for the Lebanese diaspora that exists to this day. Kensington also has a strong Arab population, particularly a Palestinian presence. Northeast Philadelphia is an area with many immigrants and refugees from Arab countries; and

WHEREAS, Since migrating to the United States, people of Arab descent have shared their rich culture and traditions with neighbors and friends, while also setting fine examples of model citizens and public servants; and

WHEREAS, Arab Americans have brought with them to America their resilient family values, strong work ethic, dedication to education, and diversity in faith and creed that have added strength to our democracy; and

WHEREAS, Writer Ameen Rihani's 1911 masterpiece, "The Book of Khalid", the first Arab American novel, is an important record of Arab immigration to the "Little Syria" community of Lower Manhattan and today is a powerful example of the potential of the United States to strengthen ties with the Arab world; and

WHEREAS, Arab American poet Kahlil Gibran’s masterpiece, “The Prophet”, was a transformative piece of literature, with over 100 translations, making it one of the most translated books in history, and discusses topics of the human condition in the most eloquent of ways by highlighting inclusion and understanding of all peoples; and

WHEREAS, The first Arabic speaker to come to North America, Zammouri, arrived an enslaved person from Morocco in 1528 and was an important explorer of the present-day American Southwest; and

WHEREAS, World fairs were one of many ways that some Americans of Arab descent came to visit the United States from the Arab world and helped grow this country by creating businesses in the United States; and

WHEREAS, The Arab American Institute estimates that there are roughly 3,700,000 Arab Americans living in the United States, and approximately 35,000 to 75,000 living in Philadelphia; and

WHEREAS, According to Census Bureau data, Arabic is one of the fastest growing languages in the United States; and

WHEREAS, There is a need for public education, awareness, and policies that are culturally competent when describing, discussing, or addressing the impacts of being Arab American in all aspects of American society, including discourse and policy; and

WHEREAS, The incredible contributions and heritage of Arab Americans have helped us build a better Nation; now; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, BY THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF PHILADELPHIA, Recognizes April as Arab American Heritage Month celebrating the heritage and culture of Arab Americans in Philadelphia.

FURTHER RESOLVED, That an Engrossed copy of this Resolution be presented to Marwan Kreidie, executive Director of the Philadelphia Arab-American Development Corps as further evidence of the admiration and respect of this legislative body.
