Office of the Chief Clerk
Room 402, City Hall
Philadelphia

(Resolution No. 060352)

RESOLUTION

Calling for honor and integrity in existing collective bargaining agreements regarding housing reorganization and furthermore calling for no circumvention of the process through any reorganization effort.

WHEREAS, Philadelphia has a national reputation as a “Labor City”; and

WHEREAS, Labor negotiations often take place; and

WHEREAS, If labor negotiations are not successful re-negotiations must occur;
and

WHEREAS, Employee layoffs under adverse circumstances can be viewed as union busting; and

WHEREAS, A city like Philadelphia has the ability and responsibility to protect and provide for its employees who are also city residents; now therefore

RESOLVED, BY THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF PHILADELPHIA, Calling for honor and integrity in existing collective bargaining agreements regarding housing reorganization and furthermore calling for no circumvention of the process through any reorganization effort.
