(Resolution No. 100317)

RESOLUTION

Proclaiming the Month of May 2010 as “Building Safety Month.”

The City Council of Philadelphia designates the Month of May 2010 as “Building Safety Month” in Philadelphia and encourages all to participate in a month-long celebration of all aspects of building safety that helps families, employers and leaders understand and appreciate the best practices that keep the places where we live, work and play safe.

WHEREAS, The International Code Council Foundation is sponsoring Building Safety Month throughout the month of May 2010 to help create community-wide recognition and understanding of building safety and sustainability and the critical role of codes and code officials; and

WHEREAS, For the last 30 years the 50,000 worldwide members of the International Code Council (ICC) have celebrated advances in building safety, and widespread interest in the campaign has grown significantly; and

WHEREAS, All communities need building codes to protect their citizens from every day tragedies like fires, weather-related events like floods and structural collapse that follows deterioration over time of buildings of all kinds; and

WHEREAS, Model building codes, adopted intact and enforced by a well-trained professional code officials are society’s best way to protecting homes, offices, schools, manufacturing facilities, stores and even places of entertainment; and

WHEREAS, Countless accidents still occur in homes across the U.S. and globally where codes are poorly understood or used improperly; and

WHEREAS, The expanded Building Safety Month will help bridge these gaps and provide a broader platform to share the sphere of knowledge among architects, engineers and skilled industry veterans so that families, businesses and communities can be safe, strong and sustainable; and
