All Depositories 2014	1.38	1.47	1.53	1.28
All Depositories 2015	1.72	1.81	1.43	1.48

- Wells Fargo was slightly below all City Depository averages for denial ratios in all prime lending in the African American and Asian segments. Wells Fargo was below the City Depository denial ratios for the Hispanic and Minority Tract segments. Ongoing market conditions including under and unemployment and the foreclosure crisis have significantly impacted the volume of credit qualified home purchase mortgage applicants. We continue to work with nonprofit housing counseling organizations to identify opportunities.
- Denial rates for Home Purchase loans decreased for minority borrowers from 2014-2015 in each category for African American, Hispanic and Asian.
- Per Econsult’s Lending Study, the Federal Reserve has repeatedly emphasized, HMDA data alone cannot be used to show racial discrimination. Certain risk factors, such as credit scores, the loan-to-value ratio and type of property are not included in the data. For Wells Fargo, these factors help explain our loan approval decisions.
- Wells Fargo’s commitment to fair and responsible lending is reflected in the report’s findings, which cite the company as “a national industry leader on anti-predatory issues.”

HOME REFINANCE

In 2015, Wells Fargo ranked 1st in the number of loans originated among all City Depositories. Wells Fargo issued 579 prime home refinance loans, which was almost three times as many loans as that of the next highest depositor.

Met or exceeded City benchmarks in all percentage of loans issued to all borrowers except percent of loans issued to LMI and female borrowers. Met or exceeded City averages for denial ratios to African-Americans and minority tract applicants – for the third year in a row. Met or exceeded City averages for denial ratios to Hispanic and Asian applicants – for the second year in a row.

Our loan decisions are based on risk, including credit, loan-to-value and debt-to-income. To the extent there are differences among various groups, they are due to differences in credit risk.

FORECLOSURE PREVENTION

- In response to rising foreclosures, the Philadelphia Court of Common Pleas granted temporary relief to residential homeowners facing foreclosures by postponing sheriff sales of foreclosed properties. The Honorable Annette M. Rizzo was at the forefront of this effort. In 2008, the City of Philadelphia created the Mortgage Foreclosure Diversion Program, one of the first of its kind in the nation. Under the First Judicial District of Philadelphia, Court of Common Pleas, Regulation No. 2008-01, conciliation conferences to explore alternatives to sheriff sales are mandated for all new foreclosure actions. Housing counselors, lenders, and legal counsel are available during the conciliation process to assist homeowners. Since its inception in 2008, according to the Office of Housing and Community Development, the City has saved 5,755 homes from foreclosure. Wells Fargo has significantly supported the City's efforts around addressing the foreclosure crisis through grant support for the "Save Your Home" Foreclosure Hotline ($87,025), the Door to Door Outreach initiative ($120,000) and Housing Counseling throughout the City ($600,000).
