CHAPTER 11-300. BOARD OF SURVEYORS

* * *

§ 11-307. Notice of Public Hearings.

(1) Whenever a public hearing is scheduled by the Board of Surveyors on changes in the City Plan, notice of said hearing shall be given as follows:

(a) by advertising once in each of the [three] two daily newspapers of the City having the largest paid circulation and in the official legal newspaper issued in the City, as defined in Section 21-1701, giving notice of the title of the plan to be considered, the date, time, and place of the hearing, and the addresses of City offices where the proposed plan may be examined, at least fifteen days prior to the date of said hearing. If [three] two daily newspapers of the City with a paid circulation and an official legal newspaper are not publishing at the time notice is required to be advertised, notice shall be given in as many such newspapers as are then publishing. If no such newspaper is then publishing, notice shall be given on the City's official website or in such manner as designated by Department of Streets regulations and in accordance with applicable law; and
