

City of Philadelphia

City Council
Chief Clerk's Office
402 City Hall
Philadelphia, PA 19107

Legislation Text

File #: 200506, Version: 0

Honoring and congratulating The Mathematics, Civics and Sciences Charter School Boys Basketball team, on their successful 2019-2020 season and overall 24-5 record in the Philadelphia Public League boys basketball championships.

WHEREAS, The Math, Civics and Sciences basketball team is led by the MCS Dean of Students Lonnie Diggs; and

WHEREAS, Players Nayeem Johnson, Hymid Snead, Jabarr Slaughter, Marcus Middleton, Niaeem Edwards, Nisine Poplar, Nadir Barron, Jeff King III, Tayshon Nixon, Mohamed Sesay, Zakee Fleming, Tvon Jones, Bocar Semega, Naadhir Wood, Darryon Rescott, Vernon Tolbert Jr, showed determination, strength, and skill to become Philadelphia Public League champions; and

WHEREAS, The team has ranked third overall in the Philadelphia Public A conference and second in the PA Class AA. MCS is ranked 8th overall in Pennsylvania, 1st overall in PA division AA, and 9th in Philadelphia; and

WHEREAS, MCS worked to defeat rival teams like Simon Gratz twice, once in overtime with a buzzer shot in overtime and again in the Public League championship, both with fast-paced action with reliance on MCS's players' incredible points per game percentage; and

WHEREAS, Player Nisine "Wooga" Poplar helped lead the team with a 21.2 average points per game, 5 average rebounds per game, and 3 average assists per game. Poplar has been called Philadelphia's most intriguing college basketball prospect with his history as a North Philly native, growing up playing in recreation languages, he received offers from several universities including St. Josephs, University of Kentucky, and Temple University. Poplar was an integral part of MCS's PIAA Class 2A state title in March 2019; and

WHEREAS, The Math, Civics and Sciences Charter School's mission is to "graduate students prepared to enter a two or four-year college, trade school, and the workforce" and has demonstrated excellent academics, athletics, and commitment to prepare students for an ever changing postgraduate society with a 100% graduation rate and a 98% college attendance rate; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, BY THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF PHILADELPHIA, That we hereby congratulate and honor the Mighty Elephants of MCS's boy's basketball team on their championship win in the 2019/2020 Philadelphia Public League.