Should the Police Commissioner fail to respond within fifteen days, the Commission may publish its findings, recommendations and related reports at any time thereafter.

(3) The Commission shall allow at least three days to elapse following the receipt of the Police Commissioner's timely written response to its findings or recommendations before taking any action. After such time, the Commission may, in its discretion, revise its findings or recommendations to take into account the Police Commissioner's response. The Commission shall append the Police Commissioner's response to its final document.

(4) The Commission and its members shall not make public any non-redacted confidential document or other materials.

Complaints shall be further categorized by Council District and Police District.*

§21-1212. Protection of Rights. Nothing in this Chapter shall be construed to limit the rights of officers or members of the Police Department with respect to disciplinary action, including but not limited to the right to notice and a hearing, which may be established by any provision of law, by any collective bargaining agreement, or otherwise.

§21-1213. Related Investigations. The Commission shall develop procedures consistent with this requirement.
