Legislation Details (With Text)

File #:	130390	Version:	0	Name:
Type:	Resolution			Status:	LAPSED
File created:	5/9/2013			In control:	CITY COUNCIL
On agenda:				Final action:
Title:	Honoring the life and achievements of Joseph W. Mahoney, Jr., a longtime leader of the Greater Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce and a passionate advocate for the business community in the City and region.
Sponsors:	Councilmember Kenney, Councilmember Oh, Councilmember Goode, Councilmember Johnson, Councilmember Reynolds Brown, Councilmember Jones, Councilmember O'Brien, Councilmember Henon, Councilmember Bass, Councilmember Greenlee, Councilmember Quiñones Sánchez, Council President Clarke, Councilmember Blackwell, Councilmember O'Neill, Councilmember Squilla
Indexes:
Code sections:
Attachments:	1. Signature13039000.pdf

Date	Ver.	Action By	Action	Result	Tally
5/9/2013	0	CITY COUNCIL	Introduced and Ordered Placed on This Week's Final Passage Calendar	Pass

Honoring the life and achievements of Joseph W. Mahoney, Jr., a longtime leader of the Greater Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce and a passionate advocate for the business community in the City and region.

WHEREAS, Joseph W. Mahoney, Jr. was born in West Philadelphia, the eldest of the three sons of Joseph W. Mahoney Sr. and Edna Mahoney. The family moved to Bala-Cynwyd, and he attended Archbishop Carroll High School and St. Joseph's University. Joe was an administrative specialist with the FBI in Washington, D.C., concentrating on counterintelligence operations; and

WHEREAS, Joe then served eight years on the staff of former U.S. Representative Lawrence Coughlin, the Montgomery County Congressman from the 13th District. He was Rep. Coughlin's campaign manager in the 1982 campaign, and was his representative for constituent outreach and administrative services in Washington; and

WHEREAS, In 1990, Joe joined Greater Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce where he served as Executive Vice President where he oversaw the Chamber’s public policy activities at the federal, state and city levels as well as outreach to the county governments in the surrounding counties. He also served on the Board of Visitors for the Haub School of Business at St. Joe’s; and

WHEREAS, Whatever the policy issue was, and whether Joe was supportive or opposed a particular issue, Joe treated every person with whom he came into contact with calmness, decency, and a true sense of professionalism; and

WHEREAS, Joe is survived by his mother, Edna, his wife, Patricia McElwee Mahoney, two brothers, Rev. Shawn Mahoney and Dennis and Josephine Mahoney, and six nieces and nephews. He resided in Bryn Mawr, Pennsylvania; now therefore, be it RESOLVED, BY THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF PHILADELPHIA, That Council does hereby honor the life and achievements of Joseph W. Mahoney, Jr., a longtime leader of the Greater Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce, and a passionate advocate for the business community and for the entire Philadelphia region.

FURTHER RESOLVED, That an Engrossed copy of this resolution be presented to Patricia Mahoney as evidence of the sincere sentiments of this legislative body.

powered by Legistar™