13 (Brief pause.)

14 MR. TALIAFERRO: Ladies and 15 gentlemen, good morning and once again

16 welcome to the investiture of members of 17 Council, the organization of City 18 Council, the inauguration of the 19 Honorable James F. Kenney as Mayor, and 20 the investiture of members of the 3

1 1/4/16 - STATED - INAUGURATION
2 And now we would ask that you 3 would rise and bow your heads for the 4 invocation given by His Excellency, 5 Charles Chaput, Archbishop of 6 Philadelphia.
7 (All members and guests rise.)
8 ARCHBISHOP CHAPUT: Samuel
9 Adams, the political philosopher and one 10 of our nation's founding fathers, once

11 observed that a person is the truest 12 friend of the liberty of his country who 13 tries most to promote its virtue.

14 As citizens of the United 15 States and this wonderful City of 16 Philadelphia, we've inherited freedoms 17 and opportunities that set a standard for 18 much of the world. We have so very much 19 to be grateful for as we begin a new 20 year, and let us turn our hearts for a 21 moment to the one God who made us and who 22 sustains us with his love.

23 Let us pray.

24 Father in Heaven, Scripture
25 teaches us that you formed us in the 4

1 1/4/16 - STATED - INAUGURATION

2 womb, you created us in your image, and 3 you guarantee the dignity of each and 4 every human being. Make us faithful
5 stewards of the time you give us in this 6 world. Help us to be builders and 7 peacemakers. Help us to remember the 8 poor and to protect the weak. Help us to 9 reflect your light to the world and to 10 show by our action that truth, integrity, 11 and service still shape the purpose of 12 American public life.

13 Bless Mayor Kenney in his time
14 of service, the members of our City
15 Council, their families, and all the men 16 and women who serve with them, and pour
17 down your grace on all Philadelphians so 18 that the renewal of this great city will 19 begin and take root in the goodness and 20 decency of its people.

21 We ask this in your name as 22 your sons and daughters, confident of 23 your love.

24 Amen.

25 (Amen.)

2 MR. TALIAFERRO: We invite you
3 to remain standing as the Philadelphia
4 Police and Fire Departments, along with 5 the Philadelphia Prison System Honor 6 Guards, present the colors, while the 7 Philadelphia Boys Choir and Chorale leads 8 us in singing the National Anthem.

9 (Colors presented and National 10 Anthem sung.)

11 (Applause.)

12 MR. TALIAFERRO: At this time,
13 please welcome City Council President, 14 the Honorable Darrell L. Clarke, to the 15 podium.

16 (Applause.)

17 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: Good 18 morning.

19 (Good morning.)

23 moment to welcome and thank everyone who 24 has taken time out of their busy day to 25 witness their government in action. It

4 that in four years you come back again.

9 John Swope, Reverend Terrence Griffith,

6 (Oath of office administered.)

11 (Applause.)
12 COUNCILMAN HENON: It is now my 13 pleasure to present to you the President 14 of City Council, the Honorable Darrell L.
15 Clarke.

16 (Applause.)
17 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: I'm 18 sorry I was a little anxious. It's only 19 my second time.
20 Folks, I just want to say that 21 it is a pleasure of having an opportunity 22 to serve as the President of the City 23 Council of Philadelphia. It is one of 24 the best jobs in the City and one of the 25 best jobs in the country. So I want to 19

1 1/4/16 - STATED - INAUGURATION
2 truly thank my colleagues, all of my 3 supporters, all of the wonderful staff 4 that we have and the people that have 5 given me this awesome opportunity.
6 To my colleagues, some old 7 friends and some new friends, it is my 8 honor to continue serving the people of 9 the City of Philadelphia as President of 10 City Council. I want to thank you again

11 for this privilege.

12 Four years ago, as some of you

13 may recall, I stood on this stage and I

14 was a little nervous, it was my first

15 time, I must admit, but I was extremely

16 optimistic and extremely determined to do

17 the business for the citizens of the City

18 of Philadelphia, and as a result of that,

19 I'd like to say I am so proud of this

20 City Council, the people that I have

21 worked with. And I know that I may rub

22 some people the wrong way, but the last

23 four years I've worked with what I

24 believe to be the best City Council in 25 the City of Philadelphia's history.

20

1 1/4/16 - STATED - INAUGURATION

2 (Applause.)

3 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: And

4 that doesn't include the new members

5 because you guys weren't here. So I'm 6 sure you'll enhance that.

7 But together we modernized
8 property assessments, streamlined 9 planning and development functions in an 10 historic reinvention of municipal 11 government, created the nation's largest 12 Land Bank.

13 Thank you, Councilwoman, for 14 that awesome work.

15 (Applause.)

16 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: We
17 authorized an independent Water and Sewer 18 Rate Board to protect consumers and 19 strengthened regulations to make 20 building, demolition, and construction 21 safer.

22 Councilman Jones, I want to 23 thank you for chairing those hearings.

24 (Applause.)

25 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: We

2 adopted strategies to build an affordable 3 future, and that is very important in 4 today's times. Solicited citizen input
5 and community sustainability initiatives 6 at town halls throughout the City of 7 Philadelphia and began working with 8 stakeholders.

9 And, Mayor Kenney, I want to 10 thank you. That trip was awesome to 11 Cincinnati. We look forward to expanding 12 on that.

13 And the last four years were 14 extremely productive, and I'm 15 particularly proud about the fact that 16 we've worked together. And you look at 17 the vote count and the number of our 18 sessions and there were a lot of 17-0, 19 16-1's, 15-2's. And as a matter of fact,
20 I tell my communications person that a 21 press person actually called me and said,
22 You know, you guys are boring.

23 What do you mean?

24 You're always together.

25 I said, Well, you know, that's

1 1/4/16 - STATED - INAUGURATION

2 not a bad thing. And I had to apologize 3 for not having to fight on the floor of 4 City Council. We didn't do that this 5 term, right? Nobody threatened to throw
6 anybody out of the window, right? A la 7 Abscam, there wasn't a movie made after 8 us. But we did some good work. But 9 guess what? We still have so much more
10 to do.

11 In spite of the significant 12 problems we tackled and milestones we 13 reached, far too many issues remain 14 unresolved. None of us here, especially 15 those in this beautiful amphitheater, can 16 feel good about being the most 17 impoverished of the major U.S. cities.
18 Nor can we feel good about unemployment 19 in some of our neighborhoods,
20 unemployment that actually reaches 21 upwards of 40 to 50 percent in some of 22 our communities. We cannot feel good

23 about vacant lots and blighted conditions 24 that still are a part of some 25 neighborhoods' landscape. We have to fix

23

1 1/4/16 - STATED - INAUGURATION
2 that.
3 The previous term Council made 4 a significant proposal to ensure 5 equitable growth throughout the City of 6 Philadelphia, to make sure that every 7 neighborhood, every neighborhood is a
8 community of choice. And I want to thank 9 my colleagues for working so diligently 10 toward the goal of equitable communities
11 that are inclusive of everyone regardless
12 of who they are or how much they earn. I 13 want to thank you guys so much for that 14 great work.
15 (Applause.)
16 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: Here

17 in the City of Philadelphia, a city of 18 working-class communities, that 19 conversation begins and ends with 20 affordability. For those of us who got 21 knocked down during the recession, 22 whether by job loss or lost savings, 23 getting back to where we were has been 24 difficult, has been extremely difficult.
25 Young people are delaying homeownership.

24

1 1/4/16 - STATED - INAUGURATION
2 People who used to be homeowners are now
3 renting. There are some significant 4 challenges. And in spite, you do see
5 market-rate housing in a lot of sections
6 of the City of Philadelphia. And I want
7 to thank Mayor Nutter for working with us
8 to ensure that we have significant 9 growth. But the simple reality is that 10 most of our citizens cannot afford the 11 cost of those new market-rate housing.
12 So last term, City Council set

13 out a goal to building 2,000 new 14 affordable, workforce units on vacant 15 land in gentrifying neighborhoods to make 16 sure that everybody had an opportunity to 17 live in these choice neighborhoods. We 18 are already bucking a trend that is 19 making other major cities less affordable 20 and less inclusive.

21 We will also be rolling out a
22 comprehensive energy strategy to help
23 homeowners, businesses, and our own City
24 government to increase efficiencies,
25 reduce costs, and create more than 10,000

25

1 1/4/16 - STATED - INAUGURATION

2 new green jobs along the way. To the 3 press, stay tuned for that.

4 We know that a good quality of 5 life is not just about having a place to 6 live. Economic opportunity, giving 7 people the ability to sustain themselves

8 and their families and have real pride in 9 earning a living, is critical to creating 10 healthy communities. I'm talking about 11 jobs, jobs, jobs.

12 So to create new jobs, we will 13 propose the following: A targeted and 14 coordinated effort among the private,
15 public, and non-profit sectors to secure 16 an amendment to the Uniformity Clause in 17 the Pennsylvania State Constitution,
18 which will allow our city, for the first 19 time in decades, to truly reform our tax 20 structure. This isn't just about 21 delivering tax relief for homeowners --
22 (Applause.)

23 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: I
24 know some Chamber people like that.

25 This isn't just about tax

26

1 1/4/16 - STATED - INAUGURATION
2 relief for homeowners, although that is 3 definitely a laudable goal. This is 4 about making targeted investments to 5 stimulate the economic growth and the 6 prosperity of our city.

7 Two, we need to make sure that 8 young people in the City of Philadelphia
9 graduating from the Philadelphia public 10 schools and other high schools are 11 prepared to join the workforce. For 12 some, that might mean moving on to 13 college and maybe even grad school, but 14 college, particularly with the insane
15 costs and debt associated with it, is not 16 for everyone.

17 So what we want to do and have 18 started those discussions, that we have 19 been blessed to have world-class higher 20 education institutions and teaching
21 hospitals in the City of Philadelphia.

22 Few cities can beat us in eds and meds.

23 As a matter of fact, I'll go so far as to 24 say we're the best. I know Boston is 25 maybe a close second, but at the end of

1 1/4/16 - STATED - INAUGURATION

2 the day, the City of Philadelphia has the 3 best eds and meds.

4 (Applause.)

5 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: So

6 understanding that, understanding that,

7 as we talk about the School District and

8 some of the curriculum changes, while I

9 understand that we are mandated to teach

10 to the test, how about teaching to the 11 job opportunity?

12 (Applause.)

13 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE:

14 Wouldn't that be a novel idea?

15 So as a result of that, we have 16 had productive conversations with our

17 major universities, including Penn,

18 Drexel, and my personal favorite,

19 Temple -- it's in my district -- about

20 increasing partnerships with Philadelphia

21 public schools. And I want to thank

22 every college and university official who 23 had looked me in the eye and told me they 24 are committed to doing more for our young 25 people. They're committed, and I'm 28

1 1/4/16 - STATED - INAUGURATION
2 looking forward to that. Together, we 3 must find a way to get more Philadelphia
4 public school students on a path to tech, 5 health, science jobs right here in the 6 City of Philadelphia. That, by the way, 7 is how you really address economic 8 inequality - education plus opportunity.
9 (Applause.)
10 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: Now,
11 about our schools. It is beyond 12 unconscionable that in this economic 13 recovery the big banks, the corporations,
14 the CEOs are doing better. They're doing 15 real well, real well. But across the 16 country, the simple reality is that 17 school districts are starving. And this 18 is not just morally wrong, it is also

19 extremely counterproductive as it relates 20 to our health and our long-term
21 viability.

22 We are competing with countries
23 around the globe that don't just think 24 twice about investing heavily in 25 education. In the City of Philadelphia,

29

1 1/4/16 - STATED - INAUGURATION
2 the birthplace of American democracy, we 3 don't have enough teachers, nurses,
4 counselors, books to give our kids a 5 quality public education they need to 6 become successful adults.

7 (Applause.)

8 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: But 9 today we have more reasons to be hopeful.
10 We have a governor in Tom Wolf, who is 11 here with us today -- Governor, where are 12 you?

13 (Standing ovation.)

14 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: All 15 right, Gov. We still love you here in 16 the City of Philadelphia. I don't know 17 about any place else in the state, but we 18 love you here.
19 So I want to thank the 20 Governor, who is insisting on a
21 responsible spending plan that funds
22 Pennsylvania schools in a responsible 23 way. And we will --
24 (Applause.)
25 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: And

30

1 1/4/16 - STATED - INAUGURATION
2 we will, in just a few minutes, have a
3 Mayor in Jim Kenney, a South Philadelphia
4 guy --
5 (Applause.)
6 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: --
7 coming from a row home community, just 8 like myself, who knows the importance of 9 a well-rounded education not just for all

10 kids, but especially for the most 11 vulnerable kids, kids who are born into 12 less than stable conditions and less than 13 perfectly safe communities. So we look 14 forward --

15 (Applause.)

16 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: --
17 to ensuring that opportunity, because all 18 children deserve a quality education just 19 as our own.

20 Last November, our new Mayor
21 and our new chief education officers and 22 members of my staff, we visited 23 Cincinnati.

24 I'm going to go off script a
25 little bit on this.

31

1 1/4/16 - STATED - INAUGURATION

2 We saw something that was 3 extremely exciting. We saw a school that 4 had every opportunity in that school for 5 healthcare. I mean, they literally had 6 an eyeglass store in the school. It was 7 awesome. And I got to tell you, I'm not 8 easily impressed, but I was impressed.

9 But the simple reality is for every city,
10 you need to have a different business
11 model, and in the City of Philadelphia, 12 as we move towards adopting the community
13 school model in a very aggressive way, 14 the simple reality is, to some degree the 15 challenges for that child are not just in 16 the classroom. It's in the home. It's 17 in the way to school.

18 (Applause.)

19 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: It's 20 all of the issues, the social issues,
21 that surround that child's life.

22 So what we say, we have to 23 address the entire child. We can't 24 simply just focus on the classroom.

25 (Applause.)

1 1/4/16 - STATED - INAUGURATION
2 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: So
3 what we're talking about is creating 4 community schools in an aggressive way.

5 Mayor, I hope I'm not taking a 6 part of your speech. I'm sorry, because 7 I'm free-lancing. I get excited about 8 this.

9 When we talk about the things
10 that people need in communities, we talk 11 about we do not have a City Hall in every 12 neighborhood, right? We do not have a 13 library in every neighborhood, right? We 14 do not have a hospital in every 15 neighborhood. But guess what we have in 16 every neighborhood? A school. So that 17 school should be the focal point of every 18 imaginable service that we can deliver to 19 our citizens, and I think that approach
20 will allow us to create the environment 21 that will make every neighborhood a 22 neighborhood of choice.

23 (Applause.)

24 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: So I

25 just want to say I'm extremely excited,

33

1 1/4/16 - STATED - INAUGURATION

2 obviously, about that potential.

3 City Council has already

4 started the process towards community

5 schools, and we'll be talking about that

6 in a little more aggressive pace, but I

7 want to talk about one thing that has 8 recently become a topic of discussion.

9 Very shortly we will be making an 10 announcement on significant reforms of 11 our criminal justice system, right?

12 (Applause.)

13 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: That

14 is not sexy. People, okay, whatever.

15 But the simple reality is that it affects

16 your life if you pay taxes. It affects

17 your life if you have a family member

18 that has had a challenge. It affects

19 your life if you happen to live in a

20 neighborhood where crime continues to be 21 a challenge. It will affect your life if 22 you are a member of the City of 23 Philadelphia.
24 So with this reform, we will 25 look at every opportunity, because we 34

1 1/4/16 - STATED - INAUGURATION
2 truly believe that no Philadelphian 3 should live in fear of those sworn to 4 protect and serve them, meaning the 5 police, nor should any Philadelphian who 6 has made a mistake and is remorseful and 7 wants to turn their life around and 8 become a productive citizen be denied
9 opportunities to do so.
10 (Applause.)
11 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: So
12 to all of you and to my colleagues in 13 particular, all of you, I want to thank 14 you so much for the last four years, and 15 I look forward to the next four years,

16 because it is going to be a blast.

17 So to all of you, I want to 18 thank you so much for being here today.

19 May God bless you. Thank you so much.

20 (Standing ovation.)

21 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE:

22 Thank you. Now it's time to get back to 23 real business.

24 The next order of business is

25 the election of the Chief Clerk of the

14 (Oath of office administered.)

22 The organization of the Council

23 of the City of Philadelphia and the 25 are now complete, in accordance with the

1 1/4/16 - STATED - INAUGURATION

2 provisions of the Home Rule Charter.

3 (Applause.)

4 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE:

5 Council is now honored by the presence of 6 John Roberts. I ask you all to please

7 rise as I invite Reverend Roberts to lead

8 us in prayer.

9 (All members and guests rise.)

10 REVEREND ROBERTS: Let us all

11 pray.

12 Lord, thou has been our

13 dwelling place in all generations, before

14 the mountains were brought forth, forever

15 thou has formed the earth and the world.

16 Even from everlasting to everlasting,

17 thou art God.

18 Our Father, we just want to 19 take time to thank you. Not only did you

20 wake us up, but you helped us to get up.

21 You blessed us with a portion of strength

22 where we were able to bathe ourselves

23 without any assistance. And then you
24 brought us to this place on this morning, 25 covering us with your divine protection.

44

1 1/4/16 - STATED - INAUGURATION
2 We ask now that you would bless
3 these great leaders of this great city.
4 Bless our Council President. Thank you
5 for the service that he's already 6 rendered. We ask that you will continue 7 to give him wisdom and knowledge and even 8 a greater understanding that he might 9 lead this great city, along with those 10 that are in the office along with him
11 working to make this city a greater city.
12 We pray now for our children,
13 that you will cover them in your divine
14 protection. All lives matter.
15 Bless us now and we shall be 16 blessed. Heal us now and we shall be 17 healed. For how good and how pleasant it 18 is for brethren to dwell together in 19 unity.

20 Except the Lord build the 21 house, they labor in vain that build it.
22 Except the Lord keep the city, the 23 watchman waketh but in vain.
24 We ask that you would be with 25 us on today, and when we leave this

45

1 1/4/16 - STATED - INAUGURATION
2 place, let us continue to bind together 3 to make this the greatest city in 4 America. I believe we can do it. We 5 trust and look to you, the author and 6 finisher of our faith.
7 Bless our Councilperson. Bless
8 the President. Bless his family. Keep 9 them safe from hurt, harm, and danger.
10 Bless my good friend and President,
11 Darrell Clarke. Touch his body, keep him 12 strong physically, naturally,
13 spiritually, with the wisdom of Solomon

14 to lead this great city, along with our 15 newly appointed and elected Mayor of this 16 great city.

17 And we ask this in thy name and 18 for our sake we pray. And as always,
19 Lord, I thank you for listening. And all 20 God's people said amen.

21 (Amen.)

22 (Applause.)

23 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE:

24 Thank you, Reverend.

25 Everyone please be seated. At 46

1 1/4/16 - STATED - INAUGURATION

2 this time, I invite the Enon Tabernacle
3 Baptist Church Choir to perform "I'll Say 4 Yes." The choir is directed by Garland 5 Waller.

6 (Enon Tabernacle Baptist Church
7 Choir performs.)

8 (Applause.)

9 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE:

10 Thank you. Extremely inspiring.

11 Today we are also honored by 12 the presence of Reverend John Swope.

13 Before we proceed with the induction of 14 the Mayor of the City of Philadelphia, I 15 invite Reverend Swope to lead us in 16 prayer.

17 REVEREND SWOPE: We give thanks 18 today for how this ceremony has been 19 sprinkled with prayer and song.

20 Good and Gracious God, we who 21 gather today in prayerful recollection
22 for the inauguration of our new Mayor, 23 James Kenney, do so mindful that we are 24 citizens of a great city that mirrors the 25 rich pluralism and diversity of our 47

1 1/4/16 - STATED - INAUGURATION
2 country.

3 We are a people who come
4 together out of multiple backgrounds,

5 ethnic, racial, and religious, cultural 6 and social, with varying interests, 7 occupations, and matters of living. We 8 ask that you continue to bless us as 9 Philadelphians as we seek always to 10 respect one another. Make of each of us 11 a productive citizen, willing to 12 collaborate together for the good of our 13 city. Bless us with the fruits of your 14 spirit - love, joy, peace, patience,
15 kindness, gentleness - so that we may 16 truly reflect in our lives what we know 17 in our hearts, that we are all brothers 18 and sisters of one another since we are 19 all your children.

20 On our Mayor-elect, James
21 Kenney, who assumes his responsibilities
22 to lead our great City of Philadelphia, 23 we ask an outpouring of the gifts that 24 are yours alone to give - wisdom and 25 understanding, counsel and fortitude.

1 1/4/16 - STATED - INAUGURATION

2 May we always see in him dedication to 3 the service of our great, diverse city, 4 and may he always see us as willing to 5 work with him.

6 Impute Mayor-elect Kenney with 7 the spirit of truth and grant him wisdom, 8 insight, boldness to address the 9 challenges confronting our historic city.

10 Captivate his heart, Lord. Mold his 11 ethos, Lord. Inspire his mind, and 12 mentor him as he exercises the 13 responsibilities of his office. May he 14 be protected by the shield of your 15 righteousness and be armed with the sword 16 of your spirit. Set down even deeper in 17 him, oh Lord, the sensitivity to the 18 burdens that each of us bear. Make him 19 even more attuned to that groaning that 20 arises from the soul of our city, that 21 groaning that calls out for justice in 22 our time. May he seek ideals beyond what 23 the eye can see and seek always the 24 greater good.

25 Finally, Almighty God, we ask

49

1 1/4/16 - STATED - INAUGURATION
2 that you let the brightness, gentleness,
3 and mercy of your countenance shine upon 4 this wonderful city. Each one of us, out 5 of our various faith, traditions, and 6 heritages, pray in your most holy name, 7 and let us say together amen.

8 (Amen.)

9 (Applause.)

10 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE:

11 Thank you so much.

12 We will now proceed with the 13 induction of the Mayor of the City of 14 Philadelphia. The Chair appoints
15 Councilman Squilla, Councilwoman Bass, 16 Councilwoman Quinones-Sanchez, and 17 Councilman Johnson to escort the 18 Honorable James F. Kenney, Mayor of the 19 City of Philadelphia, to the rostrum.

20 (Standing ovation.)
21 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: The 22 Chair also invites Brendan and Nora
23 Kenney to join him at the rostrum.
24 JUDGE DOUGHERTY: Place your 25 left hand on the Bible, raise your right

50

1 1/4/16 - STATED - INAUGURATION
2 hand. Please repeat after me.
3 (Oath of office administered.)
4 JUDGE DOUGHERTY:
5 Congratulations, Mayor Kenney.
6 (Standing ovation.)
7 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE:
8 Thank you. The Chief Clerk will now read 9 the certificate of election of the 10 Honorable James F. Kenney as Mayor of the 11 City of Philadelphia.
12 CHIEF CLERK: Jim Kenney, at an 13 election held November 3, 2015, you were 14 duly elected the Mayor of the City and 15 County of Philadelphia for a term of four

16 years, commencing the first Monday of 17 January 2016.

18 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: The

19 Honorable Kevin Dougherty, Justice of the 20 Pennsylvania Supreme Court, will

21 administer the oath of office to the 22 Mayor.

23 MAYOR KENNEY: I'll go again.

24 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: The

25 old saying, it was so nice, sometimes you

51

1 1/4/16 - STATED - INAUGURATION

2 want to do it twice.

3 Ladies and gentlemen, I present

4 to you the Mayor of the City of 5 Philadelphia, James Kenney.

6 (Standing ovation.)

7 MAYOR KENNEY: Thank you.

8 Thank you so much. I can't tell you how

9 humbling and what an honor it is to be

10 standing in this wonderful room with all

11 these people that I have known my whole 12 life and have worked with and to have 13 been sworn in, with my children holding 14 the Bible, by a young man who just got 15 elected to the Pennsylvania Supreme 16 Court, who lived --

17 (Applause.)

18 MAYOR KENNEY: -- who he and 19 his brother lived about 100 yards from 20 our home in South Philadelphia, with his 21 brother John, and Kevin.

22 We did pretty good, Kevin,
23 don't you think? God bless America.

24 And it's going to take me a 25 little time getting used to not being in

52

1 1/4/16 - STATED - INAUGURATION
2 City Council, because I voted three times
3 during the course of the session. I kept 4 on saying aye, and my daughter kept on 5 looking at me like I was nuts.
6 First, I want to thank my

7 parents and my children for their support
8 today and every day. Thank you so much.

9 (Applause.)

10 MAYOR KENNEY: I also want to 11 thank the Council President and City
12 Council for allowing me to be here today.
13 This is, after all, your session and your 14 reorganization. I look forward to 15 working with you in the years to come on 16 many important things. We will be 17 partners in this endeavor, and we will 18 show you the respect that you've earned 19 as independent elected officials in 20 getting the job done for all the citizens 21 of this city.

22 (Applause.)

23 MAYOR KENNEY: I'd like to 24 thank Governor Rendell, Mayor Street,
25 Mayor Green, Mayor Goode, Mayor Nutter,

2 and Justice Dougherty and, importantly,
3 all of our tremendous City workforce who 4 help put this all together and who are 5 working out in the street right now in 6 every capacity to make our city run. I
7 thank you for all your work.

8 (Applause.)

9 MAYOR KENNEY: I asked some of 10 my predecessors for advice on the address
11 I'm about to deliver, and above all else, 12 they said to keep it brief, except for 13 Mayor Street, who said as long as it 14 takes. Admittedly, that's never really 15 been a big problem for me. Back in 16 February, I believe I sped-read what was 17 supposed to be a 15-minute speech in 18 about 60 seconds. So bear with me.

19 We actually held that first
20 campaign speech in the Mayor's Reception
21 Room, and looking back, I guess it was a 22 little presumptuous, but I wanted to 23 launch our campaign there because it was 24 the first time I was ever in City Hall, 25 was when my mother took me to that very

1 1/4/16 - STATED - INAUGURATION

2 room to see my father promoted in the

3 Fire Department. So that room has 4 special meaning for me.

5 (Applause.)

6 MAYOR KENNEY: It was actually

7 Mayor Rizzo who swore him in, which was 8 an interesting process.

9 From a pretty early age, I

10 understood that dad didn't just work to 11 support our family. He worked for all of 12 Philadelphia's families. And that meant

13 that sometimes he was even going to be

14 required to put other families before his 15 own.

16 When you're a child, that kind

17 of sacrifice seems normal. It's your

18 reality. But looking back, I see how

19 extraordinary the sacrifice was that both

20 my parents made. During my dad's long

21 hours at the firehouse, my mother raised

22 all four of us while also working outside 23 the home so that we could attend 24 parochial school. When I went to the 25 Prep, the Jesuits articulated my parents'

55

1 1/4/16 - STATED - INAUGURATION
2 sacrifices as the "magis," which loosely
3 translates to "doing more," doing more 4 for others.

5 At the end of the day, it was 6 the Jesuits' teaching and my parents'
7 selflessness that led me to this stage.
8 Together they taught me that you could 9 never truly be happy unless you're in 10 service to others.

11 (Applause.)

12 MAYOR KENNEY: Over the last
13 year, we articulated a lot of different 14 ways that we believe our administration
15 can serve the City - expanded pre-K,
16 stronger neighborhood commercial

17 corridors, community schools, and 18 community policing. And while those 19 policies cover a wide range of issues, 20 they all come from one fundamental truth:
21 government functions properly when it's 22 accessible and accountable to the people 23 it serves.

24 (Applause.)

25 MAYOR KENNEY: I learned that

56

1 1/4/16 - STATED - INAUGURATION
2 truth working in my early days of 3 government. I started my political 4 career working in constituent services.
5 It was my job to help folks get their 6 water turned back on and to change the 7 alley lights and to replace the 8 basketball nets at the rec center.

9 Thank you. Councilman Johnson
10 is always reeked out.

11 And when you spend all day on 12 the phone with people, you realize that

13 when government just works as it's 14 supposed to, it can dramatically change
15 people's lives.

16 For the one in four people in 17 this city living in poverty, an effective 18 public transportation system can make the 19 difference of whether or not they can 20 afford to go to that job interview. For 21 a young family, affordable pre-K can make 22 the difference of whether or not they can 23 save for their children's college
24 education. For an immigrant 25 entrepreneur, a City Commerce

57

1 1/4/16 - STATED - INAUGURATION
2 representative who can speak their native 3 language can make the difference between 4 a business that succeeds and one that 5 fails.

6 Accordingly, the vision that 7 will guide this administration is that

8 City government should first and foremost 9 deliver efficient, effective services to 10 every single Philadelphian.

11 (Applause.)

12 MAYOR KENNEY: And that is 13 regardless if they live in Northeast or 14 Southwest or if they're a knew transplant 15 or their family has lived here for 16 generations.

17 That may sound like a "back to 18 basics" approach, but in reality, it is 19 as large and difficult a goal as ever 20 been announced on this stage.

21 Providing efficient and 22 effective services means that our 23 government has to be ethical and open 24 with taxpayers about the work they pay us
25 to do.

58

1 1/4/16 - STATED - INAUGURATION

2 Providing efficient and

3 effective services means educating all

4 our children where they live.

5 (Applause.)

6 MAYOR KENNEY: Our children
7 should not have to get up before dawn and 8 take three different buses to get to a 9 good school.

10 (Applause.)

11 MAYOR KENNEY: But in order to 12 make quality schools in every 13 neighborhood a reality, we will need the 14 private sector and our non-profit
15 partners to come together with the City
16 to create community schools, as Council
17 President laid out very enthusiastically.

18 Providing efficient and 19 effective services also means that 20 everyone feels that they can walk the 21 streets safely and with dignity. But in 22 order to make that a reality in 23 Philadelphia, we will have to put aside 24 our differences and acknowledge two 25 things: that black lives do matter.

1 1/4/16 - STATED - INAUGURATION

2 (Applause.)

3 MAYOR KENNEY: And that the 4 overwhelming majority of our police are 5 decent, hard-working public servants who 6 risk their lives every day.

7 (Applause.)

8 MAYOR KENNEY: We need to give 9 our police the tools to establish strong 10 relationships with the community they are 11 sworn to protect and serve.

12 (Applause.)

13 MAYOR KENNEY: Furthermore,
14 providing efficient and effective 15 services means that parents working two 16 or three jobs should not live in poverty.

17 (Applause.)

18 MAYOR KENNEY: But in order to 19 create a living wage economy, our large 20 corporate banks will have to invest in 21 our small neighborhood businesses. Our 22 corporate suite executives will have to 23 hire our returning citizens coming back 24 in reentry.

25 (Applause.)

60

1 1/4/16 - STATED - INAUGURATION
2 MAYOR KENNEY: And we will have 3 to stop pitting the growth of blue-collar
4 jobs of the poor against white-collar
5 jobs in our hospitals and tech firms. We 6 have to, we must do both.
7 To achieve this vision, we will 8 have to work together. Government simply 9 cannot do it alone. We need our 10 businesses, our non-profits, our 11 universities, and everyday Philadelphians
12 to come together and row in the same
13 direction.
14 That kind of unity may seem 15 impossible to some, but there are so many 16 Philadelphians that are already doing it.
17 There are volunteer mentors who go to 18 South Philadelphia High School every day

19 to keep kids in school and off the 20 streets. There are corporations that 21 fund scholarships for our parochial 22 students, like the Neumann-Goretti
23 Women's Basketball Team, so that those 24 young women could become not only 25 national champions on the court, but also

61

1 1/4/16 - STATED - INAUGURATION
2 be the first in their families to go to 3 college.
4 (Applause.)
5 MAYOR KENNEY: I can't see you
6 out there, but I'd like the national 7 champion women's basketball high school
8 team to stand to be recognized.
9 (Applause.)
10 MAYOR KENNEY: And I just have 11 one more thing to say to you: Squad.
12 I love them. They're great.
13 There are police officers who

14 volunteer with PAL programs so that more 15 of children's first interaction with 16 police officers are positive and fun.
17 And there are community activists who 18 organize so that we all are forced to 19 acknowledge and do something about 20 injustice in our society. There are 21 community development corporations that 22 work with neighbors and developers to 23 make sure that our city grows, but 24 doesn't lose their oldest residents in 25 the process of gentrification.

62

1 1/4/16 - STATED - INAUGURATION
2 (Applause.)
3 MAYOR KENNEY: So to all those 4 Philadelphians and all the rest who have 5 entrusted me with this great
6 responsibility, thank you. Thank you
7 from the bottom of my heart. I promise
8 to serve you, to be accountable to you 9 and, most importantly, to listen and to 10 work with you so that we together as 11 Philadelphians can make every single 12 neighborhood in the City of Philadelphia 13 the best that it can be.

14 God bless you, and let's go to 15 work.

16 (Standing ovation.)

17 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: Get 18 those pictures. Thank you. This is 19 going to be good.

20 Mr. Mayor, again,
21 congratulations.

22 I now --

23 (Applause.)

24 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: I
25 now invite Reverend Terrence Griffith to

63

1 1/4/16 - STATED - INAUGURATION

2 offer a prayer for the City.

3 (Applause.)

4 REVEREND GRIFFITH: Let us

5 pray.

6 God of our weary years, God of 7 our silent tears, thou has brought us

8 thus far on our way. We come today, God,

9 on this auspicious occasion to say that

10 without you, this day would not be

11 possible. For this, we give you praise,

12 honor, and glory.

13 We pray, God, for our beloved

14 city, a city forged from the love of 15 liberty. And so we pray that every

16 citizen from gentrified South, affluent

17 Center City, to the poverty-ridden

18 corridors of West and North Philadelphia,

19 we will be equally liberated.

20 We pray, God, that love would

21 flow from heart to heart in the city

22 whose name sprung from the root of 23 brotherly love.

24 We pray that on every block and 25 on every street, each will be her

1 1/4/16 - STATED - INAUGURATION

2 sister's keeper and each man will be his

3 brother's friend.

4 We pray, God, for a city where

5 mothers and fathers will not have to 6 mourn for children shot down by stray or

7 intentional bullets. We pray for a city

8 where law enforcement and citizens are on

9 the same page in a city where justice

10 will roll down like waters and 11 righteousness like a mighty stream.

12 Bless our city, Lord, and may 13 we act like the mother city of America.

14 And while I'm at it, God, I pray that you

15 give us a championship next year.

16 (Laughter.)

17 REVEREND GRIFFITH: Help us to 18 become that city where the tired and the 19 poor, the dispossessed and the immigrant

20 can find rest and relief. But ultimately

21 we are looking for a city whose builder

22 and maker is God, a city free of theme, a

23 city free of death, a city where there

24 will be one race, one creed, and one God.

25 Thank you, God. And we are 65

1 1/4/16 - STATED - INAUGURATION

2 careful to give you the praise, the 3 honor, and the glory.

4 In the name of Jesus, the 5 Christ, we pray.

6 Amen.

7 (Amen.)

8 (Applause.)

8 Concert Choir will perform "You Raise Me

9 Up."

10 (The Girard Academic Music

12 (Standing ovation.)

13 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE:

14 Thank you. That was truly lovely.

15 As we conclude the ceremony, I

16 want to thank the Inaugural Committee for 17 their hard work for today's ceremony. I

18 also want to thank our clergy members for 19 being with us and offering their

20 prayers -- and Lord knows, we need

21 prayer -- for us and for our city.

22 The Chair now invites Rabbi

23 Jill Maderer to give a final benediction.

24 And I'd ask that all members and guests

25 please stand.

1 1/4/16 - STATED - INAUGURATION

2 (All members and guests rise.)

3 RABBI MADERER: Today, we who

4 call God many different names and we who

5 choose not to call to God at all, we

6 Jewish, Christian, Muslim, Hindu,

7 Buddhist, Philadelphians of diverse

8 neighborhoods, races, sexual

9 orientations, and languages, today we do

10 not take for granted this peaceful

11 transfer of power we call democracy.

12 Grateful for the past leaders

13 who have renewed our city and for the 14 incoming leaders who are dedicated to the 15 promise of our city's future, we rejoice

16 in a Philadelphia whose murals open our

17 hearts, whose culture stimulates our

18 minds, whose food delights our palate,

19 whose diversity inspires our souls, and 20 whose history deepens our roots.

21 This week the Jewish community

22 read in our sacred text the story of 23 Moses' call to leadership. Tending the 24 flock in the wilderness, Moses notices

25 the bush that burns, but is not consumed.

81

1 1/4/16 - STATED - INAUGURATION

2 When Moses sees that he is standing on 3 holy ground, God charges him to lead the 4 Israelites, saying, "Now go, I am sending 5 you." Humble yet courageous, strong yet 6 compassionate, sensitive yet visionary, 7 Moses heeds the call. He cares for and 8 empowers the poor, uplifts the degraded, 9 and sees dignity in the eyes of every 10 human being.

11 Holy One of Blessing, as we go 12 forth from this investiture, we ask your 13 blessing on Mayor Kenney, Council
14 President Clarke, our Councilpersons, 15 City Commissioners, Sheriff, Register of 16 Wills, and members of the Judiciary. As 17 they dedicate themselves to lead our 18 city, to solve our common problems, and 19 to lift up all Philadelphians, God, we

20 ask you to fortify and inspire our 21 leaders with humility and courage, 22 strength and compassion, sensitivity and 23 vision that they may care for and empower 24 the poor, uplift the degraded, and see 25 dignity in the eyes of every human being.

82

1 1/4/16 - STATED - INAUGURATION

2 Ignite within our leaders
3 fires, fires for justice and for mercy.
4 Ignite within them fires that burn, but 5 are not consumed, that their actions may 6 bear witness to the holy ground on which 7 we all stand.

8 Amen.

9 (Amen.)

10 (Applause.)

11 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE:

12 Thank you all very much. We have one 13 last bit of housekeeping. I would ask
14 that our good Councilwoman, Councilwoman 15 Reynolds Brown, make a motion for 16 adjournment.

17 Okay. Different scripts. Give

18 me your script, Councilman.

19 It's all good.

20 May we please remain standing

21 as the Philadelphia Police and Fire

22 Departments and Prison Guards now remove

23 the colors.

24 (The removal of colors.)

25 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE:

83

1 1/4/16 - STATED - INAUGURATION

2 Thank you to Philadelphia's finest.

4 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE:

5 Would our visitors and guests please take

7 Council session.

8 The Chair now recognizes

9 Councilwoman Reynolds Brown.

10 COUNCILWOMAN BROWN: Thank you,

11 Mr. President. I move that City Council
12 stand adjourned until Thursday, January 13 21st, 2016 at 10:00 a.m.

14 (Duly seconded.)

17 properly seconded that the Council stand
18 adjourned until Thursday, January 21st,

20 All those in favor say aye.

21 (Aye.)

22 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE:

23 Those opposed?

24 (No response.)

25 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: The
