11 We ask that you please silence

14 ceremony. Thank you.

15 Ladies and gentlemen, please

16 rise and bow your heads for the 17 invocation given by Monsignor Daniel

18 Sullivan from the Archdiocese of 19 Philadelphia.

20 MONSIGNOR SULLIVAN: Let us

21 pray.

22 Mighty and eternal God, you

23 have revealed your glory to all the 24 nations. God of power and might, wisdom

25 and justice, through you authority is

2 rightly administered, laws are enacted,

3 and judgment is decreed.

4 We pray today for James Kenney,

5 Mayor of the City of Philadelphia. We

6 pray for our City Council, the judges,

7 and all elected officials who are

8 entrusted to guard our welfare. May they 9 be enabled by your powerful protection to 12 May they all seek to preserve

14 to bring us the blessings of liberty and 15 equality.

16 We likewise remember in prayer

17 all of those who support the cause of our

18 common good. We pray for our police

19 officers, firefighters, and first

20 responders, whose sole mission is to make

21 Philadelphia our home, a place where all

22 of us can enjoy and share the many 23 blessings with which you have gifted us.

24 Today also we commend to your 25 powerful mercy all the citizens of the

1 1/6/20 - STATED MEETING

2 United States. May we be preserved in

3 union and in peace and gratefully share

4 these blessings with all of our sisters

5 and brothers throughout the world.

6 Be with us, Lord, today and 7 always.

8 Amen.

9 (Amen.)

10 MR. TALIAFERRO: Ladies and 11 gentlemen, please remain standing as the 12 Philadelphia Police and Fire Departments

13 and the Prison System guards present the 14 colors, while the Philadelphia Boys Choir

15 and Chorale lead us in singing the 16 National Anthem.

22 (Applause.)

23 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: Good

24 morning.

25 (Good morning.)

2 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: It's

3 an exciting day, and this will be an 4 exciting year.

5 I want to thank everybody who

6 has come here today for the investiture

7 and the organization of City Council.

8 This is truly democracy in action, and I

9 hope that you find today not only a

10 pleasurable one but an interesting one,

11 and it will be that.

12 We are proud to bring this

13 inauguration to The Met Philadelphia for 14 the first time and celebrate the 15 continuation of the North Broad Street

16 Renaissance.

17 (Applause.)

18 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: Its

19 Chair, Ken Scott, sitting right in front

20 of me.

21 They strategically placed you,

22 Ken. I asked that to be done.

23 So before we begin, I just want

24 to take one moment to express my sincere

25 gratitude and appreciation to four very

1 1/6/20 - STATED MEETING

2 special people not only to me but of all

3 of us, Councilmembers who are concluding

4 their term. They leave a legacy that

5 will be truly written in stone -

6 Councilman Bill Greenlee, Councilwoman

7 Blondell Reynolds Brown, Councilmember Al

8 Taubenberger, and Council Lady Jannie

9 Blackwell.

10 Let's give them a hand.

11 (Applause.)

12 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: They

13 were awesome.

14 And to the newest members, you

15 got some pretty big shoes to fill. So I

16 want to acknowledge the four newly

17 elected members being sworn in today -

18 Councilwoman Kathy Gilmore Richardson.

20 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE:

21 Councilwoman Kendra Brooks.

22 (Applause.)

23 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE:

24 Councilwoman, I see you brought the crowd

25 that you had at your inauguration party

1 1/6/20 - STATED MEETING

2 Saturday night.

3 And Councilwoman Jamie

4 Gauthier.

5 (Applause.)

6 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: And

7 probably the only person that I can't

8 beat in basketball on the stage,

9 Councilman Isaiah Thomas.

10 (Applause.)

11 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE:

12 Lastly, I just want to say it is truly an

13 honor to have allowed me and a privilege

14 to have served as your Council President

15 for the last four years. I want to thank

16 my members for again giving me this

17 awesome opportunity. You guys, thank you

18 all so much. We look forward to 19 continuing some very good things for the 20 City of Philadelphia. So to all of you,

21 thank you so much.

23 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: Now

24 the work begins.

25 So four years ago, I stood on

1 1/6/20 - STATED MEETING

2 stage at the last inauguration and I made

3 a number of pledges as we sought new ways

4 to grow our city's economy while helping

5 more Philadelphians participate in that

6 growth, and we made some progress.

7 I said we would unveil a

8 comprehensive energy strategy to help

9 homeowners, businesses, City government

10 increase efficiencies, reduce costs, and 11 create 10,000 jobs over the next decade.

12 And I got kicked three, four times by my 13 staff that said, Darrell, what in the 14 world are you saying.

15 But I meant it. No, we didn't

16 get 10,000 new jobs yet, but I'm happy to 17 say that with the Philadelphia Energy

18 Authority and the Office of 19 Sustainability of Philadelphia, we have 20 more than 1,000 new jobs in the very,

21 very awesome energy-efficient projects

22 coming on board.

23 (Applause.)

24 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: More

25 Philadelphians have actually installed

1 1/6/20 - STATED MEETING

2 solar systems in their homes, and over

3 $100 million has been invested by 4 companies and government agencies to 5 retrofit their buildings to become more

6 energy efficient.

7 Our comprehensive energy

8 strategy is saving energy, reducing

9 utility costs and, more importantly,

10 creating jobs.

11 We promise to continue our

12 efforts to ensure equitable growth

13 throughout Philadelphia and make sure

14 every neighborhood is a community of 15 choice. That is very important.

16 And while we have made much

17 progress, we still have much more work to 18 do.

19 Our Philly First Home

20 initiative -- this was really, really a

21 special program, which provides one-time

22 grants to help first-time homebuyers

23 afford the down payment and closing costs

24 of their home -- is working extremely

25 well. And if anybody bought a home

1 1/6/20 - STATED MEETING

2 recently, you understand what a challenge

3 that is.

4 So as a result of that, in six

5 months, this program has helped nearly 6 900 homebuyers achieve their dream of the 7 most significant investment in one's

8 lifetime, buying a home in the City of 9 Philadelphia.

10 (Applause.)

11 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: This

12 program is also helping to stabilize our

13 middle neighborhoods and returning money

14 to the City.

15 Now, frequently we spend money,

16 and it doesn't necessarily come back. In 17 this program, in return of 8 million in 18 grants, the City actually realized $4.5

19 million to the City in real estate

20 transfer tax. That's nearly a 60 percent

21 return on investment. That's a win-win

22 for everybody.

23 But this is no time to rest on 24 our laurels. We must build on all of the 25 positive momentum happening in

1 1/6/20 - STATED MEETING

2 Philadelphia, particularly in our

3 downtown area. From the Comcast

4 Technology Center to the FMC Tower in

5 West Philly, our skyline is growing, our

6 economy is booming. Look out, New York,

7 we're coming for you.

8 (Applause.)

9 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: Our

10 world-class academic institutions -

11 Temple, Penn, Drexel, La Salle, and St.

12 Joe's - are producing thousands of 13 college graduates, ready to take on the 14 world, and increasingly these graduates

15 are staying in Philly, drawn to our

16 neighborhoods, our affordability, our

17 vibrant arts and culture, and restaurant

18 scene that continues to grow.

19 That momentum is real, and we 20 should take a moment to celebrate it.

21 But this is not the only story

22 happening in the City of Philadelphia.

23 We also are home to 400,000 people living

24 in poverty. I want you to take that in 25 for a moment. That's one in every four

1 1/6/20 - STATED MEETING

2 person in the City that's living at or

3 below the poverty rate that is hovering

4 around 24 percent.

5 That's unacceptable to me, and

6 I assume that it's unacceptable to all of 7 you in this room.

8 So City Council took its first

9 steps to address the significant problem.

10 Council released a report. It's called

11 Narrowing the Gap. You can go to 12 phlcouncil.com, a shameless plug, to look

13 at that document, and it talks about

14 strategies aimed at alleviating poverty

15 in the City, and it utilizes best

16 practices from around the country and 17 around the globe.

18 Next, Council created a Special

19 Committee on Poverty Reduction and 20 Prevention, and we put top people in 21 charge - Councilmember Quinones-Sanchez,

22 Eva Gladstein of the Kenney

23 Administration, Sharmain Matlock Turner

24 of the Urban Affairs Coalition, and my

25 good friend, Mel Wells of One Day At A

2 Time.

3 This past fall, the Special

4 Committee met at City Hall and in

5 neighborhoods around Philadelphia,

6 hundreds of citizens and stakeholders

7 participating, lending their best ideas

8 to create jobs and develop additional 9 strategies.

10 I want you to get this next

11 one. Philadelphians are currently

12 eligible for over $450 million in federal

13 and state benefits. That's $450 million.

14 But for various reasons, they're not 15 receiving those benefits. We're working 16 with experts to develop an actionable, 17 and I say actionable plan, to get these 18 benefits to eligible Philadelphians.

19 Can you imagine the impact on 20 poverty when we obtain several hundred 21 million dollars in benefits for 22 Philadelphians? It will be significant.

23 Soon the Special Committee will 24 meet again to issue a complete set of 25 actionable recommendations for the City

2 to help lift 100,000 people out of 3 poverty by 2024, and we believe in 4 setting goals.

5 As I like to say, in the 6 1960s -- and I'm not sure I was around

7 then. Somebody told me about it. I know

8 folks will be on that Twitter trying to 9 figure out how old is this guy.

10 Our country, we rallied

11 together to send a man to the moon, and 12 everyone - academics, engineers,

13 political leaders, everybody - worked

14 together and America achieved its 15 moonshot.

16 This is our city's moonshot.

17 We must resolve this very, very troubling

18 problem.

19 So I'm calling on everyone -

20 the business community, our top

21 universities, colleges, non-profit

22 organizations, City government, and all

23 of our citizens - to work together to 24 achieve this goal. That's an effort

25 worthy of a world-class city.

1 1/6/20 - STATED MEETING

2 And that is just the beginning

3 of what we can do and must do working

4 together.

5 So last year much attention was

6 paid to the City's effort to attract

7 Amazon to Philadelphia. And we didn't

8 win; they made a mistake. But we did

9 learn what happens when the business

10 community and local government works

11 together. Philadelphia and Pennsylvania

12 put together a very competitive bid for 13 Amazon. And you know what? We didn't 14 get it, but it taught us a lot.

15 We need to keep working

16 collaboratively - the Mayor's Office, the 17 City Council, the business community, the 18 Chamber of Commerce, our academic and 19 non-profit leaders - to attract more

20 companies and jobs to the City of 21 Philadelphia.

22 And we may not have gotten

23 Amazon, actually No. 5 on the Fortune 500

24 list, but why can't we work together and 25 attract companies from the Fortune 1,000

1 1/6/20 - STATED MEETING

2 list? That will be a goal.

4 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: And

5 one good example is our growing

6 healthcare sector. Companies like

7 Independence Blue Cross, Penn Medicine,

8 Temple Health all employ thousands of 9 people in Philadelphia. But what about

10 all of the other companies emerging in 11 the biosciences and life sciences field?

12 This is what we need to do, go

13 aggressively. As aggressively as we went

14 after Amazon, we should go aggressively

15 after those particular fields.

16 So we need to work together,

17 and it means jobs and opportunity for all

18 of our citizens.

19 So while we're talking about

20 collaboration, I want to do this. Let's

21 put to rest once and for all any notion

22 that City Council is somehow

23 anti-business.

24 City Council represents a wide

25 array of constituencies, from domestic

1 1/6/20 - STATED MEETING

2 workers to the largest corporations in

3 the City. Every constituency deserves

4 equity and fairness under the law, and

5 Council works to balance those interests

6 every day in each bill or piece of 7 legislation that we introduce. That is 8 our job.

9 We are for workers and we are

10 for job-creating companies and for equity

11 and opportunity for every individual and 12 industry in the City.

13 So when we work together, we

14 achieve these goals. When we stand

15 divided, we achieve none of them.

16 Our recent reform to the City's

17 tax abatement is a good example. And I

18 had to bring up something controversial

19 today, because it's in my nature.

20 So some stakeholders wanted us

21 to take no action to reform the abatement

22 program, and it's credited with helping

23 to ignite a building boom in the last

24 decade in the City of Philadelphia that

25 was unprecedented. And other

1 1/6/20 - STATED MEETING

2 stakeholders wanted us to do away with it

3 in its entirety.

4 But what Council did was get to 5 work. Our staff carefully studied the 6 history and the impact of the abatement,

7 and in the end, we altered the abatement

8 for new residential construction over the 9 next decade, and we project that it will 10 generate over $300 million in additional 11 revenues for our public school and 12 essential City services. We kept the 13 abatement in place for commercial

14 activity, because that creates jobs.

15 So we did the appropriate

16 balancing act and we made sure that we

17 continue to be competitive. So that's 18 what we do when we work together.

19 So as we focus on an economic 20 agenda that creates good-paying jobs for 21 everyone in our City, we must also pay

22 attention to a growing gap between the 23 jobs created by our technology economy

24 and the skills possessed by our adults in 25 our city.

2 This skills gap is one of the 3 many issues associated with income

4 inequality in Philadelphia, and we must

5 narrow that skills gap.

6 We need more adult education

7 classes and curriculum for citizens

8 across our city. The Community College

9 of Philadelphia is playing a role, but we

10 need more access to classrooms for adults

11 who want to work but need to learn the 12 skills to get the technology and 13 healthcare jobs of today.

14 On a recent trip to Baltimore,

15 I met with Mayor Young and I learned what 16 they're doing on this particular issue.

17 By the end of the year, 75 percent of 18 Baltimore's public schools will be

19 community schools, and over half of them

20 offer robust financial literacy, job

21 training, and workforce development for 22 adults living in that neighborhood.

23 That's important.

24 Our expansion of community

25 schools in Philadelphia is encouraging,

1 1/6/20 - STATED MEETING

2 and I want to thank the Mayor.

3 Mayor, thank you so much, from 4 that time we rode on that little

5 rickety -- I don't know what you call it,

6 on that river in Cincinnati when we saw

7 the first community school and we were

8 holding our breath. Thank you for 9 keeping your commitment for this

10 community school initiative. We really

11 appreciate that.

12 (Applause.)

13 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: And

14 another issue that arises from a lack of 15 economic opportunity is crime. And 16 although violent crime declined slightly

17 in Philadelphia last year, unfortunately

18 shootings and homicides did not.

19 More than 100 people, 100

20 people younger than the age of 18, were

21 shot in 2019. We're talking toddlers,

22 we're talking children, we're talking

23 infants. That is totally unacceptable.

24 So Council has done a few

25 things, but we're going to need all of

1 1/6/20 - STATED MEETING

2 you. Council has taken action to protect

3 our citizens, prohibiting guns at 4 playgrounds, making it more difficult to 5 allow individuals who have protection

6 orders to get weapons. We funded, with

7 the Administration, a significant amount,

8 millions of dollars, to ensure that we 9 have violence prevention programs in the 10 City of Philadelphia, meaningful

11 programs. And, most importantly, in 12 2020, we will support our new police

13 commissioner, Danielle Outlaw.

14 (Applause.)

15 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: But

16 as she said herself last week, she cannot

17 do this alone. She needs all of our 18 help. We need all of your help. So

19 together we can make our neighborhoods

20 safer, but we must work together.

21 These issues all intersect with 22 each other, 400,000 people living in 23 poverty, a growing skills gap for people

24 who want to work but they lack the skills

25 needed in today's economy, a lack of

2 hope, too many guns on our street, too

3 many people willing to use them.

4 So to every citizen out there

5 watching this inauguration who might

6 think cynically that nothing will ever

7 change, I simply say this: There is 8 nothing we cannot achieve if we work

9 together.

10 Working together, we can lift

11 100,000 people out of poverty.

12 Working together, we can create

13 access to adult education that narrows

14 the skills gap and helps individuals get

15 on track to find jobs paying a living

16 wage.

17 Working together, we can

18 support our new police commissioner and 19 her efforts to reform our criminal system

20 and make all of our neighborhoods safer

21 for all our citizens.

22 Let that be our moonshot.

23 Now, I'm not suggesting the 24 challenges that lie ahead are easy. I am

25 saying that solving these problems is

1 1/6/20 - STATED MEETING

2 essential to our future as a city that

3 serves every citizen in the City of

4 Philadelphia.

5 President Obama said this --

6 man, do I miss him, I'm telling you.

7 (Applause.)

8 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: I'm

9 talking about changing something to allow

10 a third term. Oh, my God.

11 I'm sorry. I'm going off

12 script. I couldn't help it.

13 So when you think about the 14 challenges we face -- this is what

15 President Obama said -- these are

16 challenges that require us to look

17 forward, not backwards. That's 18 important. You got to look forward.

19 So let's look forward and craft

20 solutions that make Philadelphia a more

21 thriving, inclusive, and a safer city for 22 everyone.

23 So today I want to thank

24 everyone who has come to The Met

25 Philadelphia, North Broad Street, right

1 1/6/20 - STATED MEETING

2 in the heart of North Philadelphia for

3 this awesome inauguration, and I want to 4 thank all of you for continuing to love

5 our City of Philadelphia.

6 God bless you all. Thank you

7 so much.

8 (Applause.)

9 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE:

10 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE:

7 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE:

1 1/6/20 - STATED MEETING

2 Final Passage Calendar for consideration

3 at our next session of Council.

4 The organization of the Council

5 of the City of Philadelphia and the 6 investiture of the City Council members

7 are complete, in accordance with the 8 provisions of the Home Rule Charter.

9 The Council is honored by the 10 presence of the Reverend John Roberts. I

11 ask you all please to rise, and I invite

12 Reverend Roberts to lead us in prayer, my 13 minister, Reverend Roberts.

14 REVEREND ROBERTS: The Bible

15 says any two touching in the green asking

16 anything in his name, that he would do

17 it.

18 I want to ask that you will 19 take your neighbor by the hand.

20 Our Heavenly Father, we thank

21 you again for not only did you wake us

22 up, but you helped us to get up. You

23 gave us a portion of health and strength

24 where we were able to bathe ourselves and 25 put our own clothes on without any

1 1/6/20 - STATED MEETING

2 assistance. And you brought us safely to 3 this place on today.

4 I ask now that you would bless

5 everyone under the sound of my voice.

6 Thank you for our President of City

7 Council, my brother and friend, Darrell

8 Clarke, for those that will be working

9 along with him in City Council.

10 I pray now even for the great

11 Mayor of this city and all the elected

12 officials that I know. Thank you so much

13 for bringing us together.

14 You are a God who cares about 15 all of us, because all lives matter to 16 you.

17 Now, if you bless us, we'll be

18 blessed. If you help us, we'll be 19 helped. If you touch us, we'll be 20 healed.

21 Bless this day and make us a

22 blessing to the day, for you said in your

23 word how good and how pleasant it is for 24 brethren to dwell together in unity. For 25 united we stand, but divided we fall.

1 1/6/20 - STATED MEETING

2 Now we ask, oh God, that you

3 would bless all of us today. Give us

4 wisdom and knowledge and understanding,

5 these great leaders of this city. You

6 said in your word that when the righteous

7 are in authority, the people rejoice, but

8 when the wicked rule, the people mourn.

9 Wipe the tears away. Put 10 rejoicing down in our hearts and in our

11 souls for these great leaders of this

12 great City of Brotherly Love and Sisterly

13 Affection.

14 I ask that you would do this, 15 bind us together, make us one in the 16 spirit.

17 We ask this in Jesus' name.

18 And as always, Lord, thank you for 19 listening.

20 Amen.

21 (Amen.)

22 (Applause.)

23 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE:

24 Thank you, Reverend Roberts.

25 At this time, I invite the

1 1/6/20 - STATED MEETING

2 Saint Thomas Gospel Choir to perform

3 "This is the Day." The choir is directed

4 by Walt Blocker.

5 Saint Thomas Choir.

6 (Saint Thomas Gospel Choir

7 performs.)

8 (Applause.)

9 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: All

10 right. That's right. I heard that.

11 So today we are also honored by

12 the presence of the Reverend Martini

13 Shaw. Before we proceed with the

14 induction of the Mayor of the City of 15 Philadelphia, I invite Reverend Shaw to 16 lead us in prayer.

17 REVEREND SHAW: Let us pray.

18 Almighty and eternal God, the 19 God of Abraham, Isaac, Rebecca, Sarah,

20 Muhammad, and Jesus, this morning, oh

21 Lord, we give you thanks, we give you

22 praise, we give you honor as we lift in 23 prayer our beloved and diverse City of 24 Philadelphia, a city founded and grounded

25 in both brotherly love and sisterly

2 affection.

3 As we begin this new year of 4 2020, we pray for unity where there is

5 division and separation. We pray for 6 peace where there is discord and turmoil.

7 We pray for love where there is hatred

8 and antipathy. We pray for light where 9 there is darkness and uncertainty. We

10 pray for order where there is disorder

11 and chaos. We pray for justice where 12 there is injustice and inequality. We

13 pray for healing where there is sickness,

14 pain, and suffering. We pray for joy

15 where there is sadness and despair. We 16 pray for the eradication of all forms of 17 racism and sexism and ageism. We pray

18 for an end to xenophobia, homophobia, and 19 all other phobias that divide and plague

20 our city and poison our nation.

21 We pray that we may strive for 22 justice and peace among all people and 23 respect the dignity of every human being.

24 Unite us, oh Lord, that we may be more

25 loving and compassionate, more giving and

1 1/6/20 - STATED MEETING

2 welcoming, that we may be a haven of your

3 blessings.

4 And, oh Lord, bless our Mayor,

5 bless our City Council, bless all those

6 elected to public office that they may

7 serve with integrity, dignity, and 8 faithfulness.

9 May the spirit of brotherly

10 love and sisterly affection always guide

11 our thoughts and inform our actions.

12 In the name of the omnificent,

13 omniscient, and omnipresent God who is 14 able to do exceedingly and abundantly

15 above all that we can ask or imagine,

16 Lord, hear our prayer.

17 Amen.

18 (Amen.)

19 (Applause.)

20 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE:

21 Thank you so much, Reverend.

22 We will now proceed with the

24 Philadelphia. The Chair appoints

25 Councilman Green, Councilman O'Neill,

2 Councilwoman Quinones-Sanchez, and

3 Councilman Oh to escort the Honorable

4 James F. Kenney, Mayor of the City of 5 Philadelphia, to the rostrum. The Chair

6 also invites Mrs. Barbara Kenney to join

7 him at the podium.

8 The Chief Clerk will read the 9 certificate of election of the Honorable

10 James F. Kenney as the Mayor of the City

11 of Philadelphia.

12 CHIEF CLERK: Jim Kenney, at an

13 election held November 5, 2019, you were 14 duly elected Mayor of the City of 15 Philadelphia for a four-year term,

16 commencing the first Monday of January

17 2020.

18 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: The

19 Honorable Kevin Dougherty, Justice of the 20 Pennsylvania Supreme Court, will

21 administer the oath of office to the 22 Mayor.

23 JUSTICE DOUGHERTY: Place your

24 left hand on the Bible, raise your right

25 hand.

2 (Oath of office administered.)

3 JUSTICE DOUGHERTY:

4 Congratulations, Mr. Mayor.

5 (Standing ovation.)

6 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE:

7 Thank you.

8 The members of City Council,

9 reverend clergy, elected officials,

10 distinguished guests, ladies and 11 gentlemen, I have the distinct honor to 12 present to you His Honor, the Mayor of 13 the City of Philadelphia, the Honorable

14 James F. Kenney.

15 (Applause.)

16 MAYOR KENNEY: Good morning.

17 (Good morning.)

18 MAYOR KENNEY: I want to begin

19 by thanking my family for their support,

20 especially my mother, Barbara.

21 I want to take a moment to 22 honor my father who is no longer with us,

23 but is still by my side today and every 24 day.

25 (Applause.)

1 1/6/20 - STATED MEETING

2 MAYOR KENNEY: I want to thank

3 Council President Clarke and my friends

4 in City Council for having me, as after 5 all, this is your Council session.

6 I want to specifically

7 congratulate the new members of City

8 Council. This new generation of 9 thoughtful, conscientious leaders will 10 help make this city a better place for 11 decades to come.

12 I congratulate our

13 distinguished judges, our City

14 Commissioners, Sheriff Bilal, and 15 Register of Wills Gordon on taking their 16 oaths of office today.

17 I want to acknowledge former

18 Mayor Goode and Mayor Green, also Mayor

19 Street, Congressman Boyle, Councilman

20 Evans, also Councilman Brady, and I want

21 to recognize the members of our

22 Administration who are here and the many

23 more who are working throughout the City

24 right now. Whether they're sanitation

25 workers out in the cold making sure our

1 1/6/20 - STATED MEETING

2 streets are clean or police officers and

3 firefighters racing to save someone's

4 lives, it's these individuals who make

5 this city run, and we owe them all of our 6 thanks.

7 (Applause.)

8 MAYOR KENNEY: It has been a

9 real honor to serve as your Mayor these

10 last four years, and I'm very grateful to 11 have earned another term to build on that 12 progress that we've made together.

13 In 2016, we embarked on a

14 mission to tackle some of Philadelphia's

15 biggest challenges - a struggling public

16 education system, an inequitable criminal

17 justice system, intergenerational

18 poverty, record-setting public health

19 crises, and much more.

20 Our goal was clear - to 21 increase equity and opportunity so all

22 Philadelphians, regardless of their zip

23 code, can reach their potential and lead

24 fulfilling lives.

25 We've been driven by our

1 1/6/20 - STATED MEETING

2 guiding principles of courage,

3 compassion, and collaboration.

4 Courage to do what is hard,

5 compassion to always put our most needy

6 people first, and collaboration because

7 we know that making real impact is only

8 possible when we work alongside residents

9 and have partnerships that span the 10 public, private, and non-profit sectors

11 of our city.

12 Over the last four years, we 13 have made significant progress.

14 Philadelphia is a dynamic, diverse city

15 with a strong economy. Our job growth

16 outpaces the national average.

17 Unemployment and poverty are at their

18 lowest rates in a decade. Our reputation

19 as a welcoming city fuels population

20 growth, and overall our neighborhood

21 schools are improving.

22 Think for a second about how

23 just several years ago few could have

24 imagined us gathered here today in this

25 century-old, brilliant, ornate building

2 which was held together for years only

3 through the valiant work of the Holy

4 Ghost Church community. And I thank them

5 for saving this building.

6 (Applause.)

7 MAYOR KENNEY: Now this venue

8 serves as an anchor of the renaissance

9 underway here on North Broad Street. And 10 it's symbolic of the renewed energy that

11 is happening on many of our commercial

12 corridors.

13 Yet despite this progress, we

14 know that huge challenges remain. These

15 challenges are grounded in economic and 16 racial inequality that have been building

17 for decades.

18 We must continue to confront

19 our greatest challenges and capitalize on

20 new opportunities with the courage,

21 conviction, and resilience that we as 22 Philadelphians possess.

23 I know it's possible because I

24 have seen it firsthand. I've seen it

25 through the eyes of our three- and

2 four-year-old children who are

3 experiencing a nurturing and rigorous

4 learning environment of our City-funded

5 pre-K programs.

6 I've seen it in the faces of 7 families whose lives have been changed

8 forever because we were able to help them

9 buy their first home.

10 And over the past four years,

11 I've seen it at countless community

12 meetings, rallies, marches, and festivals

13 where residents from diverse backgrounds

14 and neighborhoods gather to voice

15 concerns, fight for causes, enjoy our 16 amenities, and celebrate all that makes

17 Philadelphia unique.

18 Today we'll release a report

19 that outlines our renewed priorities for 20 this next term. There are five key areas

21 where we plan to focus our energies.

22 First, and let me be very 23 clear, nothing is more important to our

24 Administration than creating a safer and 25 more just city for all of us.

1 1/6/20 - STATED MEETING

2 It's no secret that the hardest

3 part of this job for me has been

4 addressing the senseless and unspeakable

5 violence that happens on our streets

6 every day.

7 Talking to moms and dads,

8 brothers and sisters, aunts and uncles of 9 the young men and women cut down on the 10 streets of Philadelphia has left deep

11 scars on our communities and, frankly, on 12 me personally also.

13 These young people, like little

14 Nikolette Rivera, who was murdered in her

15 living room this past October as she was 16 held in her mother's arms, will never

17 meet their potential, a loss that impacts

18 all of us in this room and every single 19 Philadelphian.

20 And it will take all of us

21 working together to make the progress we 22 know is possible.

23 Our Administration will deploy

24 every tool and resource at our disposal

25 to make sure more families do not suffer

2 the same fate.

3 We are committed to reducing

4 shootings and homicides and fighting for 5 commonsense gun control so these

6 tragedies can end once and for all.

7 (Applause.)

8 MAYOR KENNEY: Along with our

9 new Police Commissioner, Danielle Outlaw,

10 we will transform community relations and 11 make the reforms necessary to restore

12 trust and accountability between the 13 Department and its residents, especially 14 in black and brown communities.

15 (Applause.)

16 MAYOR KENNEY: While most

17 police officers perform their duties with 18 compassion and integrity, those who fail

19 to meet the standards of professional

20 conduct or demonstrate racist or sexist

21 behaviors must and will be held

22 accountable.

24 MAYOR KENNEY: All the while,

25 we will implement with urgency our

1 1/6/20 - STATED MEETING

2 violence prevention strategy, the

3 Philadelphia Roadmap to Safer

4 Communities, which combines proven

5 data-driven and community-informed

6 approaches that have successfully reduced

7 violence in other major cities.

8 And we'll continue to partner

9 with grassroots community groups each

10 step of the way, because those closest to 11 the challenges often have the best

12 solutions.

13 Since 2015, we have been taking

14 a comprehensive approach to criminal

15 justice reform to safely reduce our

16 prison population and to close the House

17 of Correction.

19 MAYOR KENNEY: A century-old

20 dungeon that was a constant reminder of 21 what mass incarceration really looks

22 like.

23 As a result, 3,000 fewer

24 Philadelphians are behind bars. And we 25 closed that prison ahead of schedule.

1 1/6/20 - STATED MEETING

2 (Applause.)

3 MAYOR KENNEY: We will continue

4 this work to reduce our jail population,

5 focusing on reducing racial and ethnic

6 disparities that persist in our system.

7 (Applause.)

8 MAYOR KENNEY: Next, to ensure

9 our young people reach their full

10 potential, we must follow the rest of the 11 civilized world and make the investments

12 necessary to improve the quality of 13 education available to all of our kids.

14 (Applause.)

15 MAYOR KENNEY: This isn't just

16 the right thing to do. Our city's future

17 depends on it.

18 For years, we watched as the 19 School District of Philadelphia was cut

20 to the bone, with significant capital

21 investments trimmed, nurses, counselors,

22 and librarians let go, and barely enough

23 money to keep the lights on.

24 But it's a new era, and we will

25 not fail another generation of our

2 children.

4 MAYOR KENNEY: Together we

5 regained control of our schools by

6 establishing a local Board of Education,

7 and we matched it with more, along with

8 Council, with more than a billion dollars

9 in City funding.

10 Now is the time to deliver on

11 the promise of local control. This means

12 working with the District and Harrisburg

13 to prioritize investments to ensure all

14 our kids and school staff have safe and 15 welcoming facilities equipped with modern 16 technology.

17 It means that all students are 18 exposed to career-connected activities so 19 they're actually prepared for college and 20 careers.

22 MAYOR KENNEY: It means our 23 dynamic teachers are properly supported 24 so they can set high standards for 25 student success.

1 1/6/20 - STATED MEETING

2 And fulfilling the promise of 3 local control means greater access to 4 quality supportive services so children

5 and families' social, behavioral, and 6 health needs are met.

7 Over the next four years, we'll

8 continue growing our City-led PHLpreK,

9 community schools, and out of school time

10 initiatives that have become lifelines

11 for students and their families.

12 We'll drastically expand

13 behavioral health supports across all

14 schools.

16 MAYOR KENNEY: Building on this

17 success, we will create a new Office of 18 Children and Families and a Children and 19 Families Cabinet charged with working

20 across City departments to ensure that

21 all policies, resources, and services for 22 children and families are aligned,

23 coordinated, and developed in close

24 partnership with the School District of 25 Philadelphia.

1 1/6/20 - STATED MEETING

2 (Applause.)

3 MAYOR KENNEY: In the second

4 term, we will also tackle new education

5 priorities like working with the 6 Community College of Philadelphia to help

7 more high school students transition to 8 college and allow for more to attend CCP

9 tuition free so they can successfully

10 graduate.

12 MAYOR KENNEY: In Philadelphia

13 and across the nation, the rising cost of 14 higher education and childcare as well as

15 food insecurity and spiraling student

16 debt is harming too many students'

17 ability to graduate. And I know this 18 keeps many parents and students awake at 19 night.

20 Yet if Philadelphia is to be a

21 talent magnet for new companies and serve

22 the rapidly changing needs of our labor

23 market, we must do more to help residents

24 gain a credential or post-secondary

25 degree.

1 1/6/20 - STATED MEETING

2 That is why our Administration

3 will be focused on creating a more

4 accessible and affordable Community

5 College for Philadelphians.

6 (Applause.)

7 MAYOR KENNEY: Last year we

8 asked City residents to rate our services

9 and tell us their priorities.

10 Overwhelmingly people were most concerned

11 with the condition of our streets. So

12 let me say that we've heard you loud and 13 clear, and making our streets safer and 14 cleaner will be another major priority.

15 (Applause.)

16 MAYOR KENNEY: You're welcome.

17 We've made tremendous progress

18 with a $200 million capital investment

19 for repaving, and we've more than doubled

20 the miles of streets paved since the year

21 2015. But we still have a long way to 22 go.

23 This term we will return our

24 roads to a state of good repair and 25 ensure that all users of our roadways are

1 1/6/20 - STATED MEETING

2 safer by adding 40 miles of protected

3 bike lanes.

4 (Applause.)

5 MAYOR KENNEY: And we will

6 support SEPTA's ambitious redesign of the 7 bus network so that Philadelphians can

8 more quickly and efficiently get to their

9 jobs and other places.

10 (Applause.)

11 MAYOR KENNEY: And for cleaner

12 streets, we will continue to ramp up

13 illegal dumping enforcement and build on

14 our successful street sweeping pilot

15 program by expanding street cleaning to 16 every neighborhood and commercial

17 corridor by the year 2023.

18 (Applause.)

19 MAYOR KENNEY: Yes, you heard

20 that right, every neighborhood, which

21 will even require folks to move their 22 cars.

23 (Applause.)

24 MAYOR KENNEY: While we're

25 improving the condition of streets, we

1 1/6/20 - STATED MEETING

2 will also remain focused on creating

3 inclusive and resilient neighborhoods and 4 making sure that our economic growth

5 extends far beyond Center City.

6 We'll continue our historic

7 investments in housing affordability,

8 homeless services, and homeownership.

9 This will help stabilize Philadelphians

10 struggling amid poverty and grow our 11 middle class.

12 To gain quality jobs, we'll

13 increase entrepreneurial support for 14 businesses owned by people of color,

15 women, and immigrants.

17 MAYOR KENNEY: And implement a

18 robust business and job growth strategy.

19 And we'll continue our

20 extensive efforts to save more lives from 21 the opioid overdose and help

22 neighborhoods like Kensington recover

23 from the traumatic toll the opioid crisis

24 has inflicted on our communities.

25 (Applause.)

2 MAYOR KENNEY: The opioid

3 crisis is a national epidemic, but it's 4 clear to me that cities like ours are on

5 the front line of this battle. We must

6 step up to solve it, as we've been doing

7 the past few years.

8 While some in Harrisburg and 9 those working at the behest of the 10 President are more concerned about

11 scoring political points, we are focused

12 on saving the souls suffering from 13 addiction.

14 (Applause.)

15 MAYOR KENNEY: And, yes, that

16 means supporting the creation of overdose

17 prevention sites to save lives and give 18 more people an entry point to treatment.

19 (Applause.)

20 MAYOR KENNEY: And that's not

21 the only thing our city needs to lead on.

22 We will continue doing everything we can

23 to address the climate crisis by

24 delivering on the Paris Climate Agreement

25 and meeting our own ambitious climate

2 goals.

4 MAYOR KENNEY: Finally, to 5 restore equity to our neighborhoods,

6 we'll continue the phenomenal progress of 7 Rebuild by revitalizing 72 parks,

8 recreation centers, playgrounds, and 9 libraries.

10 (Applause.)

11 MAYOR KENNEY: After decades of 12 disinvestment, these public spaces are

13 finally getting the attention our 14 residents, especially our kids, deserve.

15 (Applause.)

16 MAYOR KENNEY: I'm extremely

17 grateful to everyone involved in Rebuild,

18 from the staff, non-profit partners,

19 diverse businesses, and apprentices who

20 are on their way to building careers in 21 the trades.

22 I also want to thank the 23 community members who participate in the 24 design process, funders like the fabulous

25 William Penn Foundation -- thank you so

1 1/6/20 - STATED MEETING

2 much -- and City Council for enacting the 3 beverage tax.

4 (Applause.)

5 MAYOR KENNEY: Got a hand for 6 the beverage tax.

7 And our last major priority

8 this term is grounded in our work to make

9 a more diverse, efficient, and effective

10 government that delivers better customer

11 service to residents and businesses.

12 We plan to look at every policy

13 and program through a racial equity lens

14 so we can better address the racial 15 disparities that have plagued communities
16 of color for far too long.

17 (Applause.)

18 MAYOR KENNEY: For example,
19 we'll reform burdensome fines and fees 20 and bring fairness to more residents, and 21 we'll provide more support to returning 22 citizens so they can contribute to our 23 society in a meaningful way.

24 (Applause.)

25 MAYOR KENNEY: We also plan to

1 1/6/20 - STATED MEETING

2 embed data, evaluation, and

3 human-centered design in more City

4 operations.

5 These are among the top

6 priorities for this term, and everything

7 we do, every policy, every program, aims

8 to lift at least 100,000 Philadelphians

9 out of poverty.

10 (Applause.)

11 MAYOR KENNEY: Our approach to 12 reducing poverty focuses on providing

13 support to those in need now, helping

14 Philadelphians raise their incomes, and 15 enacting policies and investments that

16 will break the cycle of intergenerational

17 poverty for good.

18 I want to again thank the 19 incredibly talented and dedicated members

20 of the cabinet and staff who have been

21 instrumental in pushing forward our

22 progressive agenda these past four years.

23 City government would not run

24 without the 30,000-plus public servants

25 who work on behalf of residents every

1 1/6/20 - STATED MEETING

2 day. No words can adequately express my

3 appreciation for all of you. Thank you

4 for showing up and doing the work with 5 compassion and integrity.

6 And thank you to the residents

7 of our great city who continue to voice

8 their opinions and concerns and tell us

9 what they want to see. We hear you.

10 As Mayor, I recognize that

11 thousands of Philadelphia children are

12 kept awake at night by difficult concerns

13 that no child should bear - a parent

14 losing a job, an empty stomach,

15 overcrowded classrooms, or gunfire right

16 outside their window. It should not be 17 that way.

18 I want all Philadelphia

19 children to sleep soundly at night and 20 wake in the morning with the desire and a

21 quality education to go out and conquer

22 the world.

23 (Applause.)

24 MAYOR KENNEY: More than 25 anything else, that is the goal that will

1 1/6/20 - STATED MEETING

2 drive our Administration over the next

3 four years. And with your help, I'm

4 confident we can achieve it.

5 Thank you, God bless you, and 6 Happy New Year.

7 (Standing ovation.)

8 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE:

9 Thank you. Again, Mr. Mayor,

10 congratulations.

11 I now invite the Imam Muhammad

12 Abdul-Aleem to offer a prayer for the 13 City.

14 (Applause.)

15 IMAM ABDUL-ALEEM: Peace be

16 upon you and with God's name, the 17 merciful benefactor, the merciful

18 redeemer.

19 I'd like to begin this prayer

20 for the City. I want to make first a

21 comment that when I was given this

22 beautiful and very humbling opportunity,

23 I thought of a prayer that was given by

24 the great prophet Ibrahim, where he

25 prayed to God for a city of safety and

1 1/6/20 - STATED MEETING

2 security. So God willing, I want to

3 share with you some of the things that we

4 have written about in relationship to 5 those verses in the Quran, and I hope

6 that the invitation given by Council

7 President and our Mayor and City Council

8 that we will honor you giving us this

9 opportunity.

10 So this prayer is, our merciful

11 benefactor, our redeemer who opens for 12 all people a way to good conscience and a

13 good life.

14 Grant to the City that it may 15 continue to be a prosperous city and as

16 the people of faith taking pride in human 17 dignity, industry, and service.

18 Let us pray that this great

19 city pursuing liberty and justice in the 20 face of injustice be an inspiration to 21 other cities and to this nation to move

22 towards social and economic justice for 23 all.

24 Grant that this city always

25 have a heart for charity, compassion,

1 1/6/20 - STATED MEETING

2 repentance, and mercy for the weak and 3 the less fortunate among us.

4 Grant that we as human beings

5 always have more hope than trouble and 6 ever-growing goodness and in wisdom.

7 Bless us to always cherish our 8 freedom and the noble essence of our

9 common human essence.

10 Grant that we, the citizens of 11 this city, understand better our brothers

12 and sisters in the City and around the 13 world, and reject unsuitable racism for a

14 global community of brotherhood and 15 peace.

16 Bring all our citizens,

17 government, and members of all the 18 branches of government together, those of 19 great means and small means, to 20 appreciate more our city's pledge of 21 liberty, peace, and justice for all.

22 Bless all citizens. Share in 23 the responsibility to make our city work

24 for all of us.

25 Bless our homes and our

1 1/6/20 - STATED MEETING

2 schools. Bless the parish and our

3 troubled youth, our burdened

4 neighborhoods to never be without hope or

5 direction.

6 Bless marriage and family life

7 in our city. Bless us as citizens of 8 this great city to keep the best of our

9 ways. Bless us as citizens to live up to 10 the noble name of the City of Brotherly

11 Love and Sisterly Affection.

12 Bless us with the spirit of 13 love and unity as we work together to 14 make our city a shared freedom space.

15 Bless us in our neighborhoods

16 to return the neighbor back to the hood.

17 Bless us to establish the City

18 as the city of safety and security for 19 all citizens.

20 Bless us to have more pride in 21 industry and self-reliance.

22 Bless the workers of our city,

23 those in uniform and those not in 24 uniform.

25 Bless the efforts of this

- 1 1/6/20 - STATED MEETING
- 2 leadership body and all efforts to make
- 3 progress for jobs and more opportunity
- 4 for us in this great city for us.
- 5 Bless us to understand this
- 6 great time in which we live, the time of
- 7 the human being. Bless us to wake up to
- 8 human life and stop the senseless
- 9 violence that goes on in our
- 10 neighborhoods.
- 11 Bless us to better appreciate
- 12 the environment and our relationship to
- 13 Mother Earth.

14 Bless our leaders with the 15 patience and the wisdom to lead us in 16 these challenging times. Increase our

17 elected officials - our Mayor, our City

18 Council President, every member of the 19 City Council, City Commissioners, the 20 Sheriff, the Register of Wills, and every 21 member of the justice system - with the 22 excellence of the human spirit and the 23 excellence of intellect of statesmen that

24 we may build a better world for us all.

25 Bless us to learn to live

1 1/6/20 - STATED MEETING

2 together as human beings in service to 3 God.

4 Ameen.

5 (Applause.)

6 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: So

7 to celebrate the inauguration of Mayor

8 James F. Kenney, the Saint Thomas Gospel

9 Choir will perform "Total Praise." The 10 choir again is directed by Walt Blocker.

12 performs.)

13 (Applause.)

14 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: I

15 know this event was free today, but that 16 was worth the price of admission.

17 (Applause.)

18 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE:

19 Thank you.

20 I now invite the Reverend Naomi

21 Washington-Leapheart to offer a reading

22 in celebration of the inauguration of 23 Mayor James F. Kenney.

24 (Applause.)

25 REVEREND WASHINGTON-LEAPHEART:

1 1/6/20 - STATED MEETING

2 Good morning.

4 REVEREND WASHINGTON-LEAPHEART:

5 It is my joy to serve the City as the 6 Director for Faith-Based and Interfaith

7 Affairs in the Mayor's Office of Public

8 Engagement, and it's my honor to this

9 morning offer a word of encouragement to 10 all of you as you begin this new term of 11 leadership and of service.

12 As I prepared for today, I

13 couldn't help but think about how this

14 date, January 6th, happens to connect to 15 another important celebration on my

16 religious calendar. Today many 17 Christians observe the holiday of 18 Epiphany. We call it Epiphany because 19 the word is derived from the Greek word

20 that means appearance.

21 On this day, we celebrates the 22 first time the divine presence physically

23 appeared to human beings.

24 According to our sacred text,

25 the clue that revealed the location of

1 1/6/20 - STATED MEETING

2 this divine presence was a star in the 3 night sky. In other words, an ordinary

4 light led the people to an extraordinary

5 light.

6 One of my spiritual practices

7 for Epiphany is to have someone else

8 choose for me something called a star

9 word. A star word is something that can

10 operate like a guiding light in my life

11 throughout the year, and my task is to 12 make sense of this word, this mysterious

13 word.

14 So I ask questions like what

15 does this word mean to me, how can it

16 reveal my direction, how can it reveal

17 what I'm supposed to do and be.

18 Well, I asked the same person

19 who chose my star word last year to send

20 me a list of star words, and this morning

21 I selected a star word for you, all of 22 you who are making a commitment to 23 leadership. Your star word is craft.

24 Craft.

25 Now, I don't know how this word

1 1/6/20 - STATED MEETING

2 will show up for you over and over this

3 year. I don't know how it will be a

4 guiding light to you. I don't know what

5 it might personally mean for you, but I

6 offer it to you today, craft.

7 Perhaps this word is inviting

8 you to approach your role or your

9 position or your task like a wood worker

10 approaches the delicate precise work of 11 making something out of a shapeless block

12 of wood.

13 Perhaps the word is inviting

14 you to let your imagination run free,

15 like a child who can take two and a half

16 crayons and some old-school Elmer's glue

17 and some orange M&Ms and create something

18 beautiful that you want to hang on your 19 refrigerator.

20 Perhaps this word is inviting

21 you to, like a chef, craft new recipes

22 for justice and wellness and wholeness

23 for the residents of this city, using

24 whatever we got in our cupboards to make

25 something good, something that will fill

1 1/6/20 - STATED MEETING

2 us up, something that won't leave us

3 hungry.

4 Perhaps this word is inviting

5 you to carve out of your schedules and 6 your workload time to rest, time to 7 refresh, time to be a full human being, a

8 partner, a parent, a family member, a

9 friend.

10 May you craft what you need to 11 be well.

12 Now, crafting is not easy, but

13 it is in some ways an element of the work

14 that you're vowing to do today. You are 15 crafting and creating all the time.

16 Leadership, as Nayyirah Waheed

17 would say, is flower work. She writes

18 this: Flower work is not easy.

19 Remaining soft in the fire takes time.

20 And so I leave you with the 21 word "craft." May it be your light. May 22 you know that sometimes leadership is 23 art, just like it's science. It is 24 always creating.

25 May leadership be for you a

1 1/6/20 - STATED MEETING

2 work of art, and may this word "craft"

3 reveal to you what you need for this term

4 of service.

5 And remember, lastly, that

6 sometimes you will be someone else's

7 star. So lead them to the light.

8 Congratulations to you all and 9 God bless you.

10 (Applause.)

11 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE:

12 Thank you. Thank you so much, Reverend.

13 At this time, the Chair invites 14 the newly elected officials to take the 15 oath of office in the presence of the 9 For our final musical selection

11 Concert Choir will perform "This is Me."

12 The choir is directed by Christina

13 Blankenship.

14 (Girard Academic Music Program

15 Concert Choir performs.)

16 (Applause.)

17 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: That

18 was truly lovely.

19 As we conclude the ceremony

20 today -- before I say that, I'm not

21 supposed to say this, that after the 22 session today, there will be a lot of 23 activities in City Hall, third, fourth,

24 and fifth floor. The Councilmembers will 25 be doing their thing.

1 1/6/20 - STATED MEETING

2 The reason why I wasn't

3 supposed to announce it, because we only

4 bought enough food for so many people.

5 So it's first come, first served.

6 Also, I believe the Mayor has a

7 concert tonight. Tickets are probably

8 gone, but I'm saying it anyway.

9 So I want to thank the 10 Inaugural Committee for their hard work

11 for today's ceremony. I also want to 12 thank our clergy members for being with 13 us and offering their prayers for us and 14 for our city.

15 The Chair now invites Rabbi

16 Jill Maderer to give a final benediction,

17 and I ask that all members and guests

18 please stand for the benediction.

19 RABBI MADERER: Today, we who

20 call God many different names and we who

21 choose not to call to God at all, we

22 Jewish, Christian, Muslim, Hindu, and

23 Buddhist Philadelphians of diverse

24 neighborhoods, races, sexual 25 orientations, genders, countries of

1 1/6/20 - STATED MEETING

2 origin, and languages, today we honor

3 democracy, and we rededicate ourselves to 4 the preservation of democracy, our

5 democracy which is threatened with every

6 act of hate, every system of inequity,

7 every disrespect of difference.

8 This Hanukkah, heeding my

9 tradition's mandate to be public with my

10 faith, to be visible with my Judaism by

11 displaying the lights of the holiday, I

12 set my hanukkiah, my Hanukkah Menorah, in 13 the window just a few blocks from here.

14 Even amid a week of 15 anti-Semitic attacks, I had faith in my 16 neighbors and in their solidarity.

17 It is for all of us to create a

18 city where we have faith in one another,

19 where we stand with each other,

20 especially with our most vulnerable

21 populations, where we do not only defend

22 our own particular group but where we 23 stand with each other in solidarity.

24 Holy one of blessing, be with 25 our city's elected officials that they

1 1/6/20 - STATED MEETING

2 may stand with us. Give them the 3 strength, vision, and courage to 4 demonstrate again and again that the 5 people can count on them. And give us

6 the strength to demonstrate that our

7 leaders can count on their citizens, that

8 they can count on us.

9 God, be with us and inspire us

10 to be with each other.

11 Amen.

12 (Amen.)

13 (Applause.)

14 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE:

15 Thank you, Rabbi Maderer.

16 Would the visitors and guests

17 kindly be seated for the conclusion of 18 the session.

19 The Chair now recognizes

20 Councilman Jones.

21 COUNCILMAN JONES: Thank you,

22 Mr. President. I move that the Council

23 stand adjourned until Thursday, January

24 23rd, 10:00 a.m.

25 (Duly seconded.)
