(b) After the time specified for bid closing, bids shall publicly be opened and tabulated in the presence of a representative of the City Controller. At its discretion, and in lieu of sealed bids, the Department may provide for competitive electronic auction bidding under which (i) bids are submitted electronically at the time and in the manner designated in the invitation to bid; (ii) during the auction, only such information regarding the prices bid as the Department determines is likely to result in the lowest price to the City is disclosed to other bidders; (iii) bidders have the opportunity to reduce their prices during the auction; and (iv) at the conclusion of the auction, the name of each bidder and the lowest price it submitted are made available for public inspection. Whether or not the Department utilizes competitive electronic auction bidding, the Department may reject all bids if it shall deem it in the interest of the City so to do. Otherwise the contract shall be awarded to the lowest responsible bidder.

(b.1) No bidder on any contract for construction, alterations, repairs or maintenance that involves an expenditure of more than one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000.00), which amount shall be adjusted annually in the manner set forth in paragraph (2), shall be deemed a responsible bidder unless such bidder certifies and commits contractually, in such manner as may be determined by the Department, that at least fifty percent of the individuals who perform a substantial portion of work on the covered contract will be residents of Philadelphia.
