Dr. Munther Isaac, the Pastor of Evangelical Lutheran Christmas Church in Bethlehem and the Lutheran Church in Beit Sahour, Dean of Bethlehem Bible College, Director of the Christ at the Checkpoint Conference, and Coordinator of Global Kairos for Justice.

WHEREAS, Christian Palestinians have lived on and cultivated Palestinian land since the days of the first Pentecost; and

WHEREAS, Rev. Dr. Isaac's family stretches back hundreds of years on Palestinian land in the town of Beit Sahour; and

WHEREAS, Rev. Dr. Muther Isaac grew up in Beit Sahour, mere miles from West Jerusalem, where his grandfather had moved and flourished before he was forced off of his land during the 1948 Nakba; ethnically cleansed from Israel along with the other 750,000 Palestinians forcibly removed to the West Bank, the Gaza Strip, and the Golan Heights; and

WHEREAS, Having earned his Master degree in Biblical Studies from Westminster Theological Seminary in Glenside, Pennsylvania and his PhD from the Oxford Center for Mission Studies, Rev. Dr. Isaac returned to his homeland and has invested his life in developing Christian Palestinian theological and civic leadership as the Dean of Bethlehem Bible College. Founded by Bishara Awad in 1979, under Israeli military occupation, Bethlehem Bible College is a leading institution of higher learning in the West Bank; and

WHEREAS, Having witnessed the violent hopelessness of the second Intifada and Israel's subsequent establishment of the West Bank Separation Wall, Rev. Dr. Isaac wrote, The Other Side of the Wall: A Palestinian Christian Narrative of Lament and Hope. Specializing in the theology of empire, other books by Rev. WHEREAS, In the wake of the brutal attack by Hamas on October 7th and three months into Israel's catastrophic retaliation, with daily reports of friends and colleagues dying under the rubble in Gaza only days before Christmas, Rev. Dr. Isaac pastored his suffering congregations by asking a critical question that captured the imaginations of followers of Jesus around the world: Where would Jesus be born, if he was born today? The answer: Under the Rubble; and

WHEREAS, Rev. Dr. Isaac serves as the global coordinator of the Kairos for Justice movement; a coalition of Kairos groups in approximately 40 countries; and
